Message from Chairman

Dear Shareholders,

2016 had been a tumultuous year fraught with unexpected political and social episodes. The United Kingdom's unexpected Brexit decision and the results of the U.S presidential election had shrouded the world with clouds of uncertainties. The U.S and most of the developed economies achieved modest economic growth; and even China, one of the world's key growth engines recorded its slowest growth since 1990. Although the Singapore economy grew by 2% in 2016, the performance across business sectors was uneven.

Operating in a Volatile Market

As a result of the challenging economic environment, AnnAik had to confront weak market demand in an increasingly competitive market in 2016. These circumstances adversely impacted AnnAik's turnover, causing the turnover to decrease from $53.07 million in 2015 to $48.02 million in 2016. The decrease was partially offset by higher revenue from the Group's environmental business which secured new projects during the year.

Correspondingly, the Group recorded a loss attributed to owners of the Company at $4.57 million for the financial year ended 31 December 2016. The loss was caused mainly by a write down of long-term available-for-sale financial assets for the Group's China Dalian Sicheng project investment which amounted to $3.47 million. Excluding this impairment, the Group's operating loss is $1.10 million due principally to a sharp downward market correction that negatively affected the demand and selling price of steel piping products in both the distribution and manufacturing divisions, offsetting profit contributed by environmental business.

Strengthening Resilience

In anticipation of continued uncertainties in the global economy, the Group had implemented a focused cash flow monitoring mechanism as well as put in place various cost control measures since 2015. In 2016, the Group remained prudent. Apart from writing down the investment in China Dalian Sicheng project, the Group also adopted a proactive approach towards lowering total liabilities of the Group. This led to a repayment in bills payable of $0.83 million, trade payables of $1.02 million, other payables of $2.25 million and bank borrowings of $9.89 million according to payment schedules.

During the year, the Group also imposed strict controls in inventories replenishment and tightened collection efforts in receivables. These measures generated positive cash flows for the Group, resulting in an increase in cash and cash equivalents from $5.77 million in 2015 to $6.22 million in 2016.

Embracing New Opportunities

In 2016, the Group's environmental business continued the momentum from 2015 to contribute positively to the Group's performance. The share of profit from an associate and a joint venture in the industrial and newly ventured rural wastewater environmental business increased from $0.864 million in 2015 to $2.49 million in 2016 on the back of higher revenue and gross profit recorded. During the year, the Group also won new projects for our environmental business in Singapore.

Significantly, these various developments not only validated the Group's increasing emphasis in the environmental business during the year, but also hinted at the future potential of the business unit.

Staying on Track

2017 will likely be another challenging year. Although the world economy is expected to continue to grow moderately, the prospect for global trade suffered a major setback when the U.S pulled out of the Trans-Pacific Partnership. Geopolitical tensions and growing trade protectionism sentiments also continue to fuel a wide dispersion of various possible outcomes.

Turnover

Notwithstanding the market conditions, the Group remains on track to transform our business from a product trader to a solution provider. Through this change, we are empowered to capitalise on opportunities present in industries as they shift their focus from oil to gas, and waste to energy, solvents and water recovery. Notably, our prudent stance towards cash flow management will also enable the Group to take advantage of any arising opportunities present in the local and global markets.

Furthermore, in tandem with the strategy mapped out for a “Future Ready Singapore”, the Group looks to expand our presence beyond the shores of Singapore by collaborating closely with various stakeholders, including our existing business partners, relevant government authorities and, most importantly, our customers. Recognising that the readiness of our workforce is also central to the long-term growth and sustainability of AnnAik, the Group will invest in the development of our people to ensure that they are well skilled to meet the challenges ahead.

Dividend

The Board of Directors is pleased to propose a first and final one-tier tax-exempt dividend of 0.2 cent per share for the year ended 31 December 2016. The dividend will be paid out to shareholders upon approval at the annual general meeting.

Our Heartfelt Appreciation

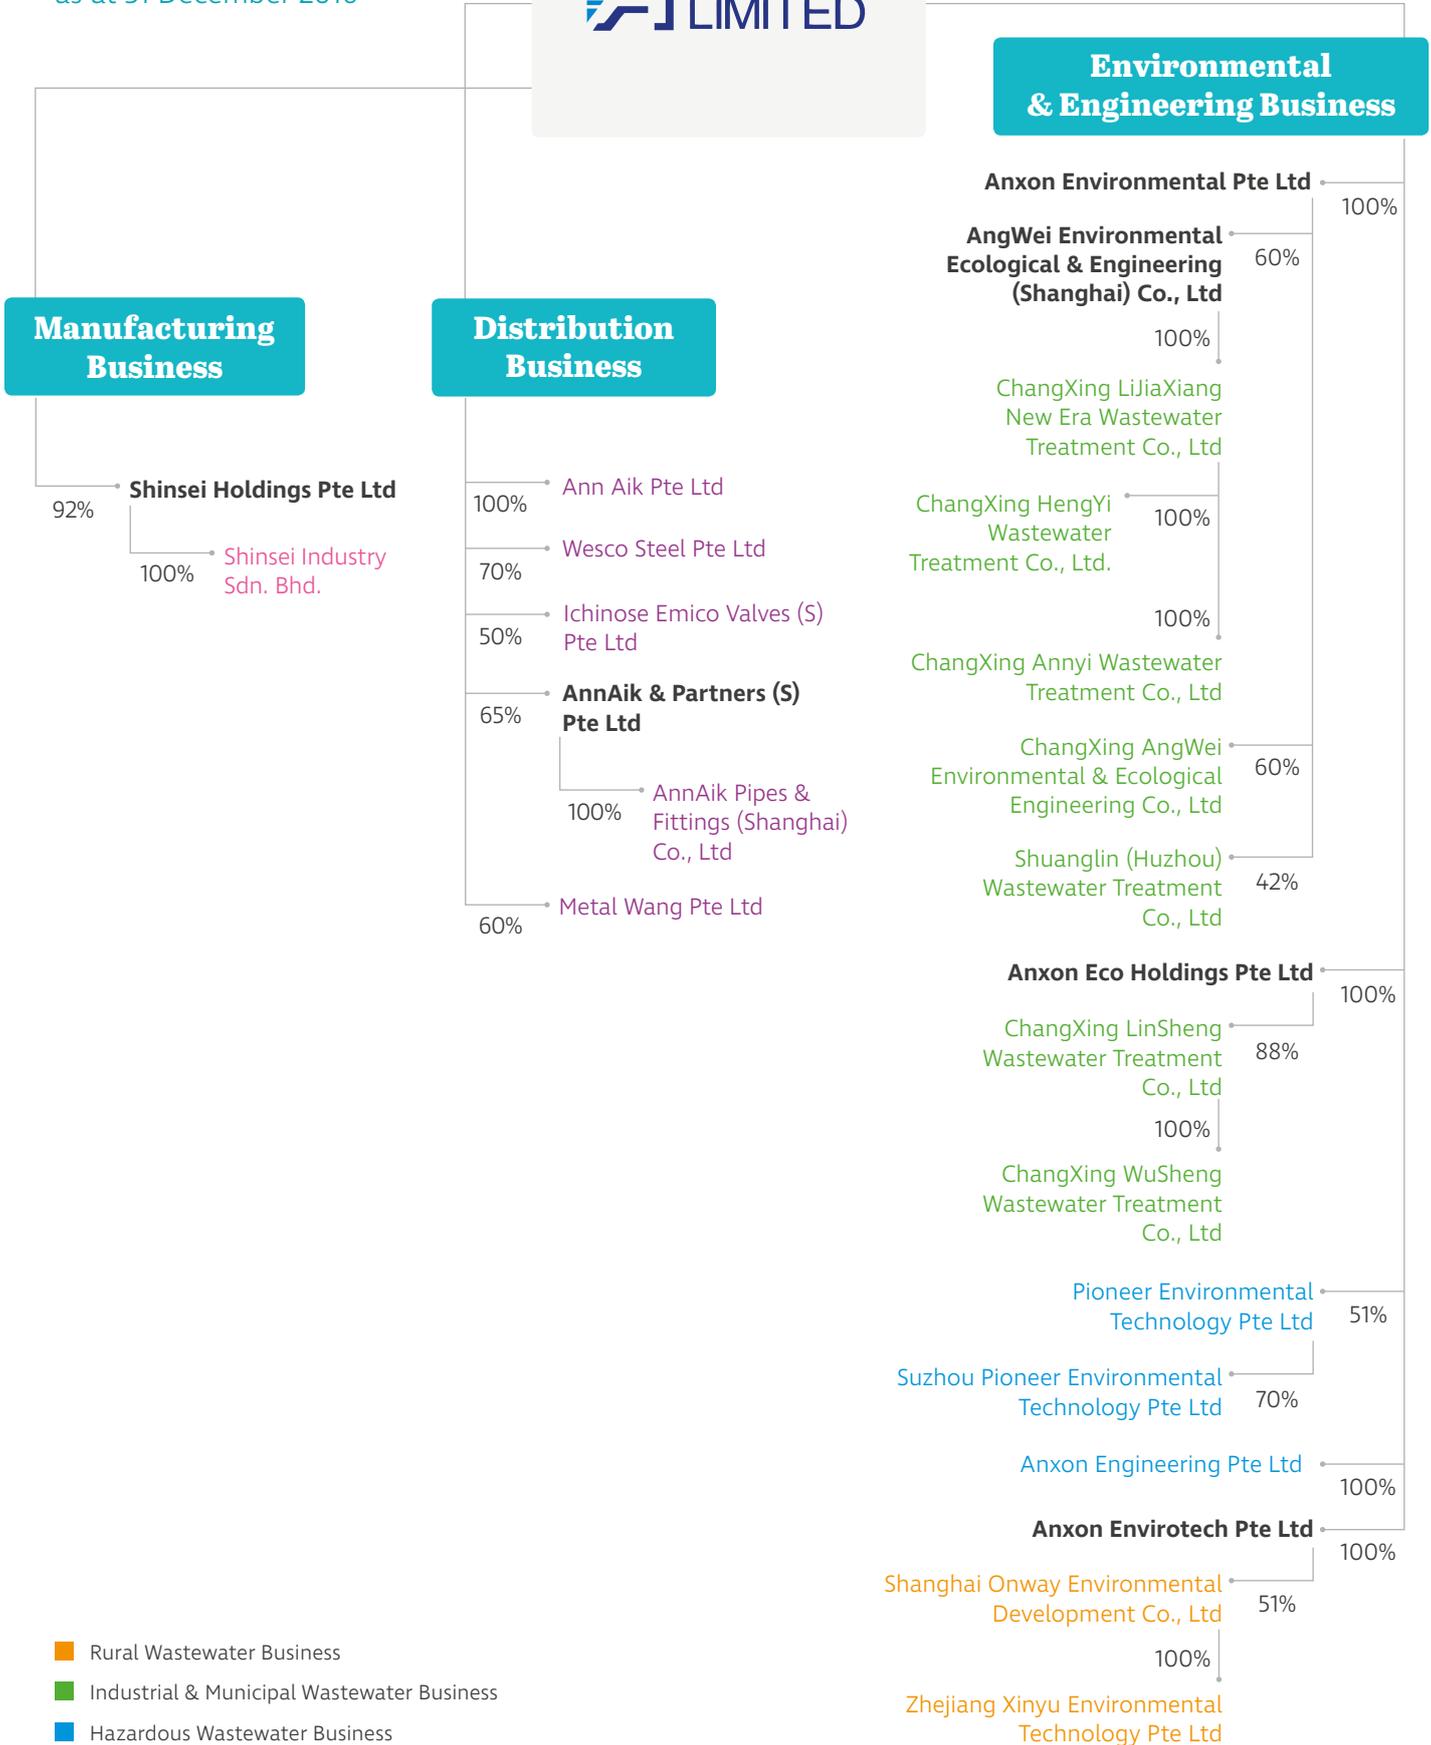

In many ways, 2016 was challenging. However, we are deeply grateful to the generous support of our shareholders, customers and business partners. Their continued partnership and trust in AnnAik fortifies our resolve to push through regardless of the difficulties confronting us. I am also humbled to work alongside a dedicated Board and passionate team. They have been instrumental in ensuring our future-readiness. Collectively, we are well positioned to create new opportunities and grow new strengths.

Operation Review

2016 served up another difficult year for AnnAik. Unexpected world events and drastic changes in the business landscape had resulted in a general loss of confidence among businesses and contributed to subdued trade activities. Against this backdrop, the Group saw a moderate decrease of 9.51% in turnover for the financial year ended 31 December 2016. Consequently, the Group recorded a loss attributed to owners of the Company amounting to $4.57 million which included a one off impairment made for the long-term available-for-sales financial assets amounting to S$3.47 million.

Excluding the write-down of long-term available-for-sale financial assets for the investment in China Dalian Shicheng project, the Group's actual operating loss stood at $1.10 million due principally to a sharp downward market correction which negatively affected the demand and selling price of steel piping products for both the distribution and the manufacturing divisions, offsetting profit contributed by environmental business.

Distribution Business

In 2016, the Group's distribution business was adversely impacted by the weak market sentiments and lower project sales. Decreased trading activities for steel coils and sheets also contributed to lower revenue for the distribution business. The situation of the sluggish market was further aggravated by the lower selling price which arose from the downward market correction. Resultantly, the distribution business registered a decrease of 20.98% in turnover for the year.

Despite the challenging market conditions, the Group kept up with our brand building efforts to ensure top of mind awareness among prospective customers. Through strengthening partnerships with existing customers and maintaining a proactive approach towards seeking out new business, the distribution business remains poised to take advantage of arising opportunities in the business landscape.

Manufacturing Business

Similarly, the Group's manufacturing business had to confront a tough operating environment. Weak market demand and suppressed selling price spilled over from 2015 and remained central to the weak performance of the manufacturing business in 2016.

Towards which, the various cost control measures implemented in 2015 continued to be effective in mitigating the negative impact of the environment on the Group's manufacturing business in 2016. In addition, a streamlined production output also ensured that slow-moving inventories do not exacerbate the operational challenges. As a result of these holistic measures, the net loss for the manufacturing business decreased in 2016 – on the back of write-back of inventories to net realisable value and lower impairment of plant and equipment.

Environmental Business

Building upon the strong growth momentum in 2015, the Group's environmental business once again outperformed the distribution and the manufacturing businesses in 2016. During the year, the revenue stream from our industrial wastewater business remained relatively stable with sustainable profit contributions to the Group; the newly ventured rural wastewater treatment business also uplifted the overall performance of the Group's environmental business. Collectively, the environmental business achieved a share of profit amounting to $2.49 million in 2016.

Outlook for 2017

For the coming year, the world economy is expected to sustain moderate growth. However, uncertainties from geopolitical tensions and growing trade protectionism would remain a concern and threaten the recovery of the global economies.

While it is inevitable that the market environment at large impacts the Group's businesses, we will stay focused on transforming our business – from a product trader to a solution provider. This fundamental shift in our business focus is not only in alignment with the growing opportunities in the environmental business, but also reinforces the resilience of the Group through a diversified business portfolio.

Leveraging the strategy mapped out for a "Future Ready Singapore", the Group will also keep an active lookout for opportunities to expand our presence beyond the shores of Singapore through close collaborations with various stakeholders such as our existing business partners, relevant government authorities and, most importantly, our customers.

Building upon the strong growth momentum in 2015, the Group's environmental business once again outperformed the distribution and the manufacturing businesses in 2016.

* Attendance by invitation

The Directors were appointed based on their experience, stature and potential to contribute to the proper guidance of the Group and its businesses. As such, we believe that each individual Director's contributions can be reflected in ways other than the reporting of attendances at Board meetings and/or Board Committees meetings.

Director Orientation and Training

The Company will conduct briefings and orientation programmes to familiarise newly appointed Directors with the various businesses, operations and processes of the Group. Further, newly appointed Directors will be provided with a formal letter setting out their duties and obligations and appropriate training to ensure that they are fully aware of their responsibilities and obligations of being a Director.

The aim of the orientation program is to give directors a better understanding of the Company's businesses and allow them to assimilate into their new roles. New Director is also informed about matters such as the Code of Dealing in the Company's securities. Changes to regulations and accounting standards are monitored closely by the Management. In order to keep pace with such regulatory changes, the Company provides opportunities for ongoing training on Board processes and best practices as well as updates on changes in legislation and financial reporting standard, regulations and guidelines from SGX-ST that affect the Company and/or the directors in discharging their duties effectively. There is no new Director appointed on Board during the year.

New releases issued by the SGX-ST and Accounting and Corporate Regulatory Authority ("ACRA"), which are relevant to the Directors are circulated to the Board. The Company Secretary also informs the Directors of upcoming conferences and seminars relevant to their roles as Directors of the Company. The External Auditors would update the AC and the Board on new and revised financial reporting standards annually.

Corporate Governance Report

Board Composition and Guidance

Principle 2: There should be a strong and independent element on the Board, which is able to exercise objective judgement on corporate affairs independently, in particular, from Management and 10% shareholders. No individual or small group of individuals should be allowed to dominate the Board's decision making.

As at the date of this report, the Board comprises nine Directors, five of whom are Executive Directors, one Non-Executive Director and three Independent Directors. Their collective experience and contributions are valuable to the Group. The Directors as at the date of this report are listed as follows:-

Executive Directors

|--------------------------|--|
| Mr Ow Chin Seng, PBM | Executive Chairman cum Chief Executive Officer |
| Mr Ng Kim Keang | Executive Director |
| Mr Koh Beng Leong | Executive Director |
| Dr Yang Guo Ying | Executive Director |
| Mr Ow Eei Meng, Benjamin | Executive Director |

Non-Executive Director

|-------------------|------------------------|
| Mr Daniel Lin Wei | Non-Executive Director |
|-------------------|------------------------|

Independent Directors

|--------------------------------|----------------------|
| Mr Ang Mong Seng, BBM | Independent Director |
| Mr Lee Bon Leong, PBM, BBM, JP | Independent Director |
| Dr Choong Chow Siong | Independent Director |

The Board has adopted the Code's criteria of an Independent Director in its review that all Independent Directors have satisfied the criteria of independence. In line with Guideline 2.1, the Independent Directors of the Company make up at least one-third of the Board. Having reviewed its size, the Board is of the view that:-

- a) the current arrangement is adequate given that the Independent Directors form at least one-third of the Board composition; and
- b) the composition of Directors as a whole provides core competencies necessary to meet the Group's requirements with an appropriate balance and diversity of skills, experiences and knowledge, taking into account the following:-
 - (i) the nature and scope of the Group's operations; and
 - (ii) the Independent Directors are respected individuals from different backgrounds whose core competencies, qualifications, skills and experience are extensive and complementary.

The independence of each Director is reviewed annually by the NC in accordance with the Code's definition of independence. Each Independent Director is required to complete a 'Confirmation of Independence' form to confirm his independence. The said form, which was drawn up based on the definitions and guidelines set forth in Guideline 2.3 in the Code and the Guidebook for AC in Singapore issued by the AC Guidance Committee, requires each Director to assess whether he considers himself independent despite not having any of the relationships defined in the Code. The NC has reviewed the forms completed by each Independent Director and is satisfied that the present size of the Board is effective for the decision making. The composition of the Board is reviewed at least annually by the NC to ensure that there is an appropriate mix of expertise and experience to enable the Management to benefit from a diverse perspective of issues that are brought before the Board.

The Company has a good balance of Directors with a wide range of skills, experience and qualities in the fields of operations, management, financial, legal and accounting. Each Director has been appointed on the strength of their own calibre, experience and stature and is expected to bring a valuable range of experience and expertise to contribute to the development of the Group strategy and the performance of its business.

Corporate Governance Report

All appointments and re-elections of Directors are reviewed and recommended by the NC to the Board. The independence of each Independent Director is reviewed by the NC and the Board annually in accordance with the guidelines of the Code.

The Board considers an Independent Director as one who has no relationship with the Company, its related corporations or its officers, its 10% shareholders or its officers that could interfere, or be reasonably perceived to interfere, with the exercise of the Director's independent business judgement with a view to the best interests of the Company.

Although Dr Choong Chow Siong, Mr Lee Bon Leong and Mr Ang Mong Seng served on the Board for more than nine years from the date of their first appointments, the NC rigorously reviewed their past contributions to the Group and considered that they are independent in character and judgement and there was no circumstance which would likely affect or appear to affect the Directors' judgement.

The opinion was arrived at after careful assessment by the NC and the Board and the rigorous review comprised a review of, but not limited to, the following factors: (a) the length of services of Dr Choong Chow Siong, Mr Lee Bon Leong and Mr Ang Mong Seng have not compromised the objectivity of Independent Directors and their commitments and abilities to discharge their duties as Independent Directors; (b) the abilities of Independent Directors to continue exercising independent judgements in the best interests of the Company; (c) the abilities of Independent Directors to express their objectives and independent views during Board and Board Committee meetings; and (d) Independent Directors, through their years of involvements with the Company, have gained valuable insights and understandings of the Group's business and together with their diverse experiences and expertise, have contributed and will continue to contribute effectively as Independent Directors by providing impartial and autonomous views at all times.

Although all the Directors have an equal responsibility for the Group's operations, the Independent Directors play an important role (i) in ensuring that the strategies proposed by the Management are constructively challenged and developed by taking into account the long-term interests of the shareholders and (ii) in reviewing the performance of Management in meeting agreed goals and objectives and monitoring the performance reporting. The Independent Directors are encouraged to meet, without the presence of Management in order to facilitate a more effective check on Management.

Profiles of the Directors are found on page 6 to 9 of this Annual Report.

To-date, none of the Independent Directors of the Company has been appointed as Director of the Company's principal subsidiary, which is based in Singapore.

Chairman and Chief Executive Officer

Principle 3: There should be a clear division of responsibilities between the leadership of the Board and the executives responsible for managing the company's business. No one individual should represent a considerable concentration of power.

The roles of Chairman and Chief Executive Officer ("CEO") are assumed by Mr Ow Chin Seng ("Mr Ow"). As the CEO, he is responsible for the day-to-day operations of the Group. He plays an instrumental role in charting the direction and strategic development of the Group and formulates business strategies, the development of the Group and promoting high standards of corporate governance.

As Chairman, he leads the Board and is responsible for the effective working of the Board including:-

- scheduling of meetings (with the assistance of the Company Secretary) to enable the Board to perform its duties while not interfering with the flow of the Group's operations;
- setting the meeting agenda of the Board;
- ensuring that Board meetings are held when necessary;
- facilitating contributions from the Independent Directors and encouraging constructive relationships between the Directors;
- exercising control over the quality, quantity and timeliness of information flow between the Management and the Board;
- ensuring and fostering constructive and effective communication with shareholders;

Corporate Governance Report

- promoting a culture of openness and debate at the Board; and
- promoting high standards of corporate governance with full support from the Directors and Management.

Although the roles and responsibilities of both the Chairman and CEO are vested in Mr Ow, major decisions are made in consultation with the Board. The Independent Directors currently form one-third of the Board and exercise objective judgement on corporate matters impartially, thus ensuring a balance of power and authority. The Board is of the opinion that the process of decision making by the Board has a strong independent element and provides for collective decisions without any individual or small group of individuals dominating the Board's decision making.

As the above practice is a deviation from the principles 2.2 and 3.3 and pursuant to the recommendations by the Code, the Board is considering re-constitution of the Board members and/or appointing the lead independent Director to be in line with the Code.

Board Membership

Principle 4: There should be a formal and transparent process for the appointment and re-appointment of Directors to the Board.

The Board established the NC which comprises of 4 Directors, a majority of whom, including Chairman, are Independent Directors. The NC is chaired by an Independent Director, Mr Lee Bon Leong. The other NC members are Dr Choong Chow Siong, Mr Ang Mong Seng and Mr Ow Chin Seng. The NC Chairman is also a Director who has no relationship with the Company, its related corporations, its 10% shareholders or its officer and is not directly associated with 10% shareholders.

The NC is regulated by its terms of reference and its key responsibilities include:-

- reviewing, assessing and recommending to the Board of all Board appointments and nomination of Directors having regard to their contributions and performance based on a formal and transparent process;
- determining annually whether or not a Director is independent;
- reviewing regularly the Board structure, size and composition having regard to the scope and nature of the operations, the requirements of the business, the diversity of skills, experience, gender and knowledge of the Company and the core competencies of the Directors as a Group;
- deciding whether or not a Director is able to and has been adequately carrying out duties as a Director;
- deciding the manner in which the Board's performance may be evaluated and propose objective performance criteria for the Board's approval;
- reviewing the training and professional development programs for the Board; and
- making and reviewing plans for succession.

All Directors submit themselves for re-nomination and re-election at regular intervals of at least once every three years. In accordance to Regulation 115 of the Company's Constitution, it requires one-third of the Board to retire and submit themselves for re-election by shareholders at each Annual General Meeting ("AGM"). In addition, Regulation 119 of the Company's Constitution provides that every new Director must retire and submit themselves for re-election at the next AGM of the Company following his appointment during the year. A retiring Director is eligible for re-election at the meeting at which he retires.

The NC held 2 meetings during the financial year. The NC has reviewed the independence of Mr Ang Mong Seng, Mr Lee Bon Leong and Dr Choong Chow Siong in accordance with the Code's definition of independence and is satisfied that there are no relationship which would deem any of them not to be independent.

Currently, the Company does not have any alternate Director.

The NC decides how the Board's performance is evaluated and proposes objective performance criteria, subject to the approval of the Board, which addresses how the Board has enhanced long-term shareholders' value. The Board also implemented a process to be carried out by the NC to evaluate the effectiveness of the Board as a whole and its Board committees annually.

Corporate Governance Report

Despite some of the Directors having multiple Board representations, the NC has reviewed the Directorships of the Directors and is satisfied that these Directors are able to, and have adequately carried out their duties as Directors of the Company after taking into the consideration the number of listed company board representations and other principal commitments of these Directors. Currently, the NC and Board do not determine the maximum number of listed Board representations which any Director may hold. The NC and Board are of the view that there should be no restriction to the number of Board representation of each Director and such multiple Board representation do not hinder them from carrying out their duties as Director.

The NC identifies, evaluates and selects suitable candidates for new Directorships. The NC considers factors such as the ability of the prospective candidates to contribute to discussions, the composition of the Board including the mix of expertise, skills and attributes to the existing Directors so as to identify needed and/or desired competencies to supplement the Board's existing attributes.

The NC is satisfied that Directors are able to and have adequately carried out their duties as Directors of the Company.

Each member of the NC shall abstain from voting on any resolution in respect of the assessment of his performance or re-nomination as a Director.

The NC is of the opinion that the independence of the Non-Executive Directors is maintained and that each Director has contributed to the effectiveness of the Board as a whole and its Board committees. In this regard, the NC has recommended and the Board has approved the re-election of Mr Ow Chin Seng, Dr Chong Chow Siong and Mr Daniel Lin Wei, to be put forward for re-election at the forthcoming AGM of the Company. Dr Choong Chow Siong has indicated his intention to retire from the Board and not seek for re-election at the forthcoming AGM of the Company.

Board Performance

Principle 5: There should be a formal annual assessment of the effectiveness of the Board as a whole and its Board Committees and the contribution by each Director to the effectiveness of the Board.

In line with the principles of good corporate governance, the Board has implemented a process to be carried out by the NC to evaluate the effectiveness of the Board as a whole and its Board Committees annually. The performance criteria for the Board evaluation includes an evaluation of the size and composition of the Board, the Board's access to information, accountability, board processes, board performance in relation to discharging its principal responsibilities, communication with the Management and standards of conduct of the Directors. This encourages constructive feedback from the Board and leads to enhance its performance over time.

The NC has decided unanimously that the Directors will not be evaluated individually but factor taken into consideration for re-nomination are the extent of their contribution to the Group and/or levels of participation in various Board committees and attendance of Board meetings.

In assessing the Board's performance as a whole and its Board Committees, both quantitative and qualitative criteria are considered. Such criteria include consideration of the Company's share price performance over a five-year period vis-à-vis the Singapore Straits Times Index and the achievement of strategic objectives.

The NC, in considering the re-appointment of any Director, evaluates the performance of the Director. The NC had also implemented a process to be carried out by the NC to assess the effectiveness of the Board Committees annually. The NC has recommended that the members of the respective Board Committees complete the evaluation form adopted by the NC. The results of the Board and Board Committees assessments are reviewed and discussed by the NC and, any recommendation and suggestion arising from the evaluation exercise are circulated to the Board for consideration of the appropriate measures to be taken.

Selected performance criteria will not change from year to year unless they are deemed necessary and the Board is able to justify the changes.

Corporate Governance Report

In place of physical meetings, the Board and Board Committees also circulate written resolutions for approval by the relevant members of the Board and Board Committees.

The NC, in considering the re-nomination and re-election of any Director, had considered factors including their performance in the Board as a whole, its Board Committees and individual performance including his attendance, preparedness, participation and contributions in the proceedings of the meetings.

Access to Information

Principle 6: In order to fulfil their responsibilities, Directors should be provided with complete, adequate and timely information prior to Board Meetings and on an on-going basis so as to enable them to make informed decisions to discharge their duties and responsibilities.

To assist the Board to fulfil its responsibilities, the members of the Board are provided with relevant materials on budgets, forecasts, internal financial statements, material events and transactions complete with background and explanations in a form and quality appropriate to facilitate the Board to make an informed decision prior to each Board meeting. In respect of budgets, any material variance between the projections and actual results would be disclosed and explained during the meeting. Directors are also informed of any significant developments or events relating to the Group.

As a general rule, board papers are sent to Directors at least three days in advance in order for the Directors to be adequately prepared for the meeting. In addition, the Independent Directors have separate and independent access to the Group's senior management and the advice and services of the Company Secretary who provides the Directors with regular updates on the requirements of the Companies Act and all the rules and regulations of the SGX-ST. The decision to appoint or remove the Company Secretary is made by the Board as a whole.

The Company Secretary or her representatives attend all Board and Board Committee meetings, and assists the Chairman of the Board and Board Committees in ensuring that the relevant procedures are followed and reviewed such that the Board and Board Committees function effectively. She also ensures that the requirements of the Singapore Companies Act and all other rules and regulations of the SGX-ST are complied with.

Corporate Governance Report

REMUNERATION MATTERS

Principle 7: There should be a formal and transparent procedure for developing policy on executive remuneration and for fixing the remuneration packages of individual Directors. No Director should be involved in deciding his own remuneration.

The Group's remuneration policy is to provide remuneration packages at market rates which reward successful performance and attract, retain and motivate Directors and key management personnel.

The RC comprises 3 Directors, all of whom are independent. The RC is chaired by an Independent Director, Mr Ang Mong Seng. The other RC members are Mr Lee Bon Leong and Dr Choong Chow Siong. In discharging their duties, the RC members have access to advice from the internal human resources personnel, and if required, advice from external experts.

The RC reviews and recommends to the Board a framework for the remuneration packages of the Executive Directors and executive officers and development in the Group with the goal of building capable and committed management teams.

The RC is regulated by its terms of reference and its key functions include but not limited to:-

- a) annual review of the remuneration of each of the Directors and executive officers;
- b) recommendations to the Board on a framework of remuneration of the Directors and executive officers;
- c) determination of specific remuneration packages for the Directors, executive officers and associates of controlling shareholders; and
- d) implement and administer Share Option Scheme.

The recommendations of the RC will be submitted for endorsement by the entire Board. All aspects of remuneration, including but not limited to Directors' fees, salaries, allowances, bonuses, options and benefits-in-kind shall be reviewed by the RC.

Each member of the RC will abstain from reviewing and approving his own remuneration and the remuneration packages of persons related to him. The Group has and will continue to disclose in the Annual Report the total remuneration paid to the Directors. The RC meets twice during the financial year which was in February and August 2016 respectively.

The RC, in considering the remuneration of all Directors, has not sought external advice nor appointed remuneration consultants.

In reviewing the service agreements of the Executive Directors and key management personnel of the Company, the RC will review the Company's obligations arising in the event of termination of these service agreements, to ensure that such service agreements contain fair and reasonable termination clauses which are not overly generous. The RC aims to be fair and avoids rewarding poor performance.

Independent Directors do not have service agreements with the Company. The independent Directors received Directors' fees which are recommended by the Board for shareholders' approval at the Company's AGM.

Level and Mix of Remuneration

Principle 8: The level and structure of remuneration should be aligned with the long-term interest and risk policies of the company, and should be appropriate to attract, retain and motivate (a) the Directors to provide good stewardship of the company, and (b) key management personnel to successfully manage the company. However, companies should avoid paying more than is necessary for this purpose.

The Executive Directors do not receive Directors' fees and are paid in accordance to their Service Agreements with the Company. In setting the remuneration packages of the Executive Directors, the Company takes into account the performance of the Group and that of the Executive Directors which are aligned with long term interest and risk policies of the Group. For FY2016, the Executive Directors and key management personnel have met the relevant performance conditions.

Corporate Governance Report

The Independent Directors are paid Directors' fees taking into account factors including but not limited to the effort and time spent and the scope of responsibilities of these Directors. Non-Executive and Independent Directors should not be over-compensated to the extent that their independence may be compromised and no Director is involved in deciding his own remuneration. The Directors' fees are recommended by the RC and submitted to the Board for endorsement. Directors' fees are recommended by the Board for approval at the Company's AGM.

Key management personnel's remuneration is set in accordance with a remuneration framework comprising basic salary (including a variable bonus and benefits-in-kind).

The Company does not use contractual provisions to allow the Company to reclaim incentive components of remuneration from Executive Directors and key management personnel in exceptional circumstances of misstatement of financial results, or of misconduct resulting in financial loss to the Company. Executive Directors owe a fiduciary duty to the Company. The Company should be able to avail itself to remedies against the Executive Directors in the event of such breach of fiduciary duties.

The RC can, upon direction by the Board, engage any external professional advice on matters relating to remuneration as and when the need arises.

Disclosure on Remuneration

Principle 9: Each company should provide clear disclosure of its remuneration policies, level and mix of remuneration, and the procedure for setting remuneration, in the company's Annual Report. It should provide disclosure in relation to its remuneration policies to enable investors to understand the link between remuneration paid to Directors and key management personnel, and performance.

The level and mix of remuneration of each Director and top 7 key management personnel (who are not Directors and those who were in service for the year ended 31 December 2016) are as follows:-

| Name of Director | Remuneration paid / payable in FY2016 | | | | | Breakdown of the Directors' Remuneration | | | | |

The above remuneration bands include share options granted under the AnnAik Employee Share Option Scheme 2013.

The annual aggregate amount of the total remuneration paid to top 7 key management personnel (who are not Directors or the CEO) for FY2016 is approximately S$919,000.

The annual aggregate amount of the termination, retirement and post-employment benefits granted to Directors and the Group CEO under their current contracts of employment or appointment (as the case may be) as at FY2016 is approximately S$799,000.

The Board believes that it is for the benefit of the Company and the Group that the remuneration of Directors be kept confidential, due to its sensitive nature.

Save as disclosed, there is no employee (who is not Director) whose remuneration exceeds S$50,000 during FY2016 and is immediate family member of a Director or the CEO.

The Company has adopted the AnnAik Employee Share Option Scheme 2013 (the "ESOS"), which was approved by the shareholders at an Extraordinary General Meeting held on 18 September 2013, as part of a compensation plan to motivate Directors and employees of the Group to greater dedication, loyalty and higher standards of performance. The ESOS Committee members consist of Mr Ang Mong Seng, Mr Lee Bon Leong and Dr Choong Chow Siong. Further details are found on pages 32 and 33 of this Annual Report.

ACCOUNTABILITY AND AUDIT

Accountability

Principle 10: The Board should present a balanced and understandable assessment of the company's performance, position and prospects.

The Board understands its accountability to the shareholders on the Group's position, performance and progress. The Board reviews and approves the financial results as well as any announcements before its release. The objectives of the presentation of the annual Audited Financial Statements, half-year and full-year results to its shareholders are to provide the shareholders with a balanced and understandable assessment and explanation of the Group's financial performance and position and prospects.

Corporate Governance Report

The Management provides the Board with a continual flow of relevant information on a timely basis in order that it may effectively discharge its duties. The Management understands its role to provide all members of the Board with appropriate management reports in a balanced and understandable assessment of the Group's performance, position and prospects.

Financial reports and other price-sensitive information are disseminated to shareholders through announcements via SGXNET, press release and/or posted on the Company's website. The Company's Annual Report is sent to all shareholders and accessible on the Company's website.

The Board is updated with significant events that have occurred or material to the Group during the year. The Management provides the Board with financial updates on the performance and position of the Group to keep Board members informed and updated on a monthly basis in order that it may effectively discharge their duties.

All the Directors and executive officers of the Company have signed undertaking letters pursuant to Rule 720(1) and Appendix 7H of the Listing Manual Section B: Rules of Catalist of Singapore Exchange Securities Trading Limited ("SGX-ST").

Risk Management and Internal Controls

Principle 11: The Board is responsible for the governance of risk. The Board should ensure that the Management maintains a sound system of risk management and internal controls to safeguard shareholders' interests and the Company's assets, and should determine the nature and extent of the significant risks which the Board is willing to take in achieving its strategic objectives.

The Board recognises the importance of sound internal controls and risk management practices to good corporate governance. The Board affirms its overall responsibility for the Group's systems of internal controls and risk management, and for reviewing the adequacy and effectiveness of those systems on an annual basis. The internal control and risk management functions are performed by the Group's key management personnel and reported to the AC for review.

It should be noted, in the opinion of the Board, that such system is designed to manage rather than to eliminate the risk of failure to achieve business objectives, and that it can provide only reasonable, and not absolute, assurance against material misstatement of loss, and include the safeguarding of assets, the maintenance of proper accounting records, the reliability of financial information, compliance with appropriate legislation, regulation and best practice, and the identification and containment of business risk. The Board notes all internal control systems contain inherent limitations and no system of internal controls could provide absolute assurance against the occurrence of material errors, poor judgment in decision-making, human error losses, fraud or other irregularities.

The Group had appointed UHY Lee Seng Chan & Co as the independent Internal Auditors of the Group to review the effectiveness of the Group's internal controls in light of the size and complexity of the Group's operations. Relying on the reports from the independent Internal Auditors, management letter issued by the External Auditors (to the extent as required by them to form an audit opinion on the statutory financial statements) and the representation letters from the Management, the AC will carry out assessments of the effectiveness of key internal controls during the year. Any material non-compliance or weaknesses in internal controls or recommendations from the independent Internal Auditors and External Auditors to further improve the internal controls will be reported to the AC. The AC will follow up on the actions taken by the Management and on the recommendations made by both the independent Internal Auditors and External Auditors.

For FY2016, the Board has received assurances from the CEO and the CFO of the Company that:-

- (a) the financial records have been properly maintained and the financial statements give a true and fair view of the Group's operations and finances; and
- (b) the Group's risk management and internal control systems are operating effectively.

Based on the various management controls put in place, representation letter from the Management and periodic reviews by the Management, the Board with the concurrence of the AC is of the opinion that the Group's system of internal controls and risk management procedures in addressing financial, operational, compliance and information technology controls, and risk management systems maintained by the Group during the year are adequate and effective as at 31 December 2016.

Corporate Governance Report

No risk committee has been established as the AC has assumed the responsibility of the risk management function and oversees the overall adequacy and effectiveness of the Company's risk management systems and procedures.

Audit Committee

Principle 12: The Board should establish an AC with written terms of reference which clearly set out its authority and duties.

The AC comprises 3 Directors, all of whom are independent. The AC is chaired by Dr Choong Chow Siong, The other Board members are Mr Lee Bon Leong and Mr Ang Mong Seng. All of the members of the AC are knowledgeable and familiar with financial, corporate governance and regulatory disclosure requirements. The Board believes that they possess the necessary qualifications and experiences in discharging their duties as a member of the AC.

The AC functions under its terms of reference which set out its responsibilities as follows:-

- review of the audit plans and reports from the External and Internal Auditors;
- review of the co-operation given by the Group's officers to the External and Internal Auditors;
- review of the consolidated financial statements of the Group and the financial statements of the Company before their submission to the Board;
- review of the independence and objectivity of the External Auditors and nomination of the External Auditors for reappointment;
- review of all interested person transactions, if any, to ensure that they comply with the approved internal control procedures and have been conducted on an arms' length and normal commercial terms and are not prejudicial to the interests of the shareholders of the Company;
- meeting with the External Auditors without the presence of management annually, to discuss any problems and concerns they may have;
- review the adequacy and effectiveness of the Company's risk management and internal control systems (including financial, operational, compliance and information technology controls) and to report to the Board annually;
- undertake such other functions and duties as may be required by the relevant laws or provisions of the SGX-ST Catalyst Rules (as may be amended from time to time) and as may be requested by the Board; and
- review the Company's procedures for whistle-blowing policy endorsed by the AC by which staff may, in confidence, raise concerns about possible improprieties in matters of financial reporting, financial control, or any other matters.

Apart from the above functions, the AC commissions and reviews the findings of internal investigations into matters where there is suspicion of fraud or irregularities, failure of internal controls or infringement of any Singapore law, rule or regulation which has or likely to have a material impact on the operating results and/or financial position of the Group. In the event that a member of the AC is interested in any matter being considered by the AC, he will abstain from reviewing that particular transaction or voting on that particular resolution.

It has been proposed that the AC will meet at least two times a year and as frequently as is required. In FY2016, the AC has met two times to review and approve the Group's half yearly announcement of FY2016 unaudited results, full year announcement of FY2016 unaudited results and approval of audit planning memorandum for statutory audit in FY2016.

The AC has reviewed all non-audit services provided by the auditors and they would not, in the AC's opinion, affect the independence of the external auditors. The aggregate amount of fees paid or payable to auditors for the financial year ended 31 December 2016, audit service fees amount to S$254,000 and non-audit service fees amount to S$19,000.

The AC has full access to and cooperation of the management, Internal and External Auditors. It also has full discretion to invite any Director or executive officer to attend the meetings and has been given reasonable resources to enable it to discharge its functions.

Pursuant to Rule 712 and Rule 716 of the SGX-ST Catalyst Rules, the Board and AC are satisfied that the appointment of different auditing firms for its subsidiaries would not compromise the standard and effectiveness of the audit of the Company. The details of the auditors are outlined in Notes 14 to 16 of the financial statements.

Corporate Governance Report

In July 2010, the SGX-ST and ACRA launched the "Guidance to Audit Committees on Evaluation of Quality of Work performed by External Auditors" which aims to facilitate the AC in evaluating the external auditors. Accordingly, the AC had evaluated the performance of the External Auditors based on the key indicators of audit quality set out in the Guidance such as performance, adequacy of resources and experience of their audit engagement partner and auditing team assigned to the Group's audit, the size and complexity of the Group.

In addition, in October 2015, with the support from SGX-ST and Singapore Institute of Directors, ACRA had introduced the "Audit Quality Indicators ("AQIs") Disclosure Framework to assist the ACs in evaluating the re-appointment of External Auditors based on eight (8) quality markers that correlate closely with audit quality. Accordingly, the AC had evaluated the External Auditors based on the eight (8) AQIs at engagement and/or firm-level.

Changes to accounting standards and accounting issues which have a direct impact on the financial statements were reported to the AC, and highlighted by the External Auditor in their meetings with the AC. No former partner or Director of the Company's existing auditing firm has acted as a member of the AC.

The AC also meets with the Internal and External Auditors separately without the presence of the Management at least once a year. For FY2016, the AC met once with the EA and IA without the presence of the Management on 26 February 2016.

The accounts for the year were audited by Ernst & Young LLP and the AC has recommended to the Board that Ernst & Young LLP be nominated for re-appointment as auditors at the forthcoming AGM.

Whistle-blowing policy

The Company has put in place a whistle-blowing policy in order to develop a culture of openness, accountability and integrity. The policy encourages employees and external parties to raise concerns, in confidence, about possible irregularities to Dr Choong Chow Siong, the Chairman of the AC. It aims to provide an avenue to employees and external parties to raise concerns and offer reassurance that they will be protected from reprisals or victimisation for whistle-blowing in good faith within the limits of the law. There were no whistle-blowing matters noted during the year.

The Board noted that no incidents in relation to whistle-blowing matters have been raised during the year by any staff to indicate possible improprieties in matters of financial reporting, financial control, or any other matters.

Internal Audit

Principle 13: The Company should establish an effective internal audit function that is adequately resourced and independent of the activities it audits.

Since FY2004, the Company, upon the recommendation of the AC, appointed Messrs UHY Lee Seng Chan & Co. as Internal Auditors.

The scope of internal audit is to:-

- (a) review the effectiveness of the Group's material internal controls;
- (b) provide assurance that key business and operational risks are identified and managed;
- (c) internal controls are in place and functioning as intended; and
- (d) operations are conducted in an effective and efficient manner.

The AC reviews the scope of work deliverables by the Internal Auditor on a regular basis, including overseeing and monitoring the implementation of the improvements required on internal control weaknesses identified. The AC has the responsibility to review the adequacy and effectiveness of the internal audit function on an annual basis, review the internal audit program and ensure co-ordination between Internal Auditors, External Auditors and management, and ensure that the Internal Auditors meet or exceed the standards set by nationally or internationally recognised professional bodies. The AC also reviews and approves the hiring, removal and evaluates its outsourced Internal Auditors.

Corporate Governance Report

The AC met up with the Internal Auditors separately at least once a year without the presence of Management. The Internal Auditors are provided with unfettered access to the Group's properties, information and records for performing their internal audit review.

The Internal Auditors report directly to the Chairman of the AC on any material weaknesses and risks identified in the course of the audit which will also be communicated to management. Management would accordingly update the AC on the status of the remedial action plans.

The AC and the Board review the adequacy of the internal audit function annually and are satisfied that there are adequate and effective internal controls in the Group.

SHAREHOLDER RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Shareholder Rights

Principle 14: Companies should treat all shareholders fairly and equitably, and should recognise, protect and facilitate the exercise of shareholders' rights, and continually review and update such governance arrangements.

All shareholders are treated fairly and equitably to facilitate their ownership rights. The Regulations of Constitution allow a member of the Company, who is unable to attend the general meeting in person, to appoint one or two proxies to attend and vote at the meeting in place of the member.

The Group believes that a high standard of disclosure is crucial to raising the level of corporate governance. All information relating to the Group's new initiatives are first disseminated via SGXNet followed by a news release (if appropriate), which is also available on the SGX-ST's website.

The Group does not practice selective disclosure. Price sensitive information is publicly released via SGXNet and the results and annual reports are announced or issued within the mandatory period. All shareholders of the Company will receive a copy of the Annual Report and the Notice of AGM at least 14 days before the meeting. The Notice of AGM is also advertised in a national newspaper.

In view of the above, all shareholders are given an opportunity to participate effectively and vote at the general meetings.

At the AGM, shareholders are given opportunities to express their views and ask the Board and Management questions regarding the operations of the Group. The Chairman is available at the AGM to answer those questions regarding the operations of the Group. The Chairman of the AC, RC and NC are normally available at the AGM to answer those questions relating to the work of these Committees.

The Company's External Auditors are also invited to attend the AGM to assist the Directors in addressing any relevant queries relating to the conduct of the audit and audited report.

For greater transparency and fairness in the voting process, voting at shareholders' meetings were conducted by poll since 2013. This allows all shareholders present or represented at the meetings to vote on a one-share-one vote basis. The voting results of all votes cast for or against each resolution is then announced at the meeting and broadcasted via SGXNet after the meeting.

Communication with shareholders

Principle 15: Companies should actively engage their shareholders and put in place an investor relations policy to promote regular, effective and fair communication with shareholders.

The Company recognises the importance of actively engaging with stakeholders to promote effective and fair communication.

Corporate Governance Report

The Board also acknowledges its obligation to furnish timely information to shareholders and ensures that full disclosure of material information to comply with statutory requirements and the SGX-ST Catalyst Rules is made. Any price sensitive information will be publicly released on SGXNet first before being announced to any group of investors or analysts.

To keep all stakeholders of the Company updated on the latest announcements, press releases, and stock details of the Company, stakeholders have 24-hour access to the Company's website (www.annaik.com).

The Company does not have a fixed dividend policy. The form, frequency and amount of dividends will depend on the Company's earnings, general financial condition, results of operations, capital requirements, cash flow, general business condition, development plans and other factors as the Directors may deem appropriate.

Conduct of shareholder meetings

Principle 16: Companies should encourage greater shareholder participation at general meetings of shareholders, and allow shareholders the opportunity to communicate their views on various matters affecting the company.

Our shareholders are encouraged to attend the general meetings of shareholders to ensure a high level of accountability and to be updated on the Company's strategies and goals. Notices of general meetings are dispatched to shareholders, together with explanatory notes or a circular on items of special business (if necessary), at least 14 clear calendar days before the meeting for ordinary resolutions and/or 21 clear calendar days before the meeting for special resolutions. The Board welcomes the views of shareholders who wish to raise issues concerning the Company, either informally or formally before or during these general meetings. The Chairman of the AC, NC and RC are normally present and available to address questions relating to the work of their respective committees at general meetings. Furthermore, the External Auditors are present to assist our Board in addressing any relevant queries by our shareholders.

The Company's Constitution allows corporations and members of the Company to appoint one (1) or two (2) proxies to attend and vote at general meetings. A Relevant Intermediary¹ may appoint more than 2 proxies, but each proxy must be appointed to exercise the rights attached to a different share or shares held by him (which number and class of shares shall be specified). An investor who holds shares under the Central Provident Fund Investment Scheme ("CPF Investor") and/or the Supplementary Retirement Scheme ("SRS Investors") (as may be applicable) may attend and cast his vote(s) at the Meeting in person. CPF and SRS Investors who are unable to attend the Meeting but would like to vote, may inform their CPF and/or SRS Approved Nominees to appoint the Chairman of the Meeting to act as their proxy, in which case, the CPF and SRS Investors shall be precluded from attending the Meeting.

The Board also notes that there should be separate resolutions on each substantially separate issue that may be tabled at the general meeting.

- a banking corporation licensed under the Banking Act (Cap. 19) or a wholly-owned subsidiary of such a banking corporation, whose business includes the provision of nominee services and who holds shares in that capacity; or
- a person holding a capital markets services license to provide custodial services for securities under the Securities and Futures Act (Cap. 289) and who holds shares in that capacity; or

Corporate Governance Report

The Company prepares minutes of general meetings incorporating the substantial and relevant comments or queries from shareholders that is relevant to the agenda of the meeting and responses from the Board and the Management. Such minutes are available to shareholders upon request.

Independent Auditor's Report

To the Members of AnnAik Limited

Report on the financial statements

We have audited the financial statements of AnnAik Limited (the "Company") and its subsidiaries (collectively, the "Group"), which comprise the balance sheets of the Group and the Company as at 31 December 2016, the statements of changes in equity of the Group and the Company and the consolidated income statement, consolidated statement of comprehensive income and consolidated cash flow statement of the Group for the year then ended, and notes to the financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies.

Opinion

In our opinion, the accompanying consolidated financial statements of the Group, the balance sheet and the statement of changes in equity of the Company are properly drawn up in accordance with the provisions of the Companies Act, Chapter 50 (the "Act") and Financial Reporting Standards in Singapore ("FRSs") so as to give a true and fair view of the consolidated financial position of the Group and the financial position of the Company as at 31 December 2016 and of the consolidated financial performance, consolidated changes in equity and consolidated cash flows of the Group and changes in equity of the Company for the year ended on that date.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with Singapore Standards on Auditing ("SSAs"). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Group in accordance with the Accounting and Corporate Regulatory Authority ("ACRA") Code of Professional Conduct and Ethics for Public Accountants and Accounting Entities ("ACRA Code") together with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements in Singapore, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements and the ACRA Code. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Key Audit Matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgement, were of most significance in our audit of the financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters. For each matter below, our description of how our audit addressed the matter is provided in that context.

We have fulfilled our responsibilities described in the Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements section of our report, including in relation to these matters. Accordingly, our audit included the performance of procedures designed to respond to our assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements. The results of our audit procedures, including the procedures performed to address the matters below, provide the basis for our audit opinion on the accompanying financial statements.

Write down of inventories to net realisable value

As at 31 December 2016, the Group's inventory balance amounted to $21,636,000, representing 48% of the total current assets of the consolidated balance sheet. During the current financial year, the Group has made allowance for slow-moving inventories amounting to $86,000 and has written back an amount of $401,000, pertaining to inventories previously written down to net realisable value.

The Group is exposed to risk of slow-moving inventory as a result of volatility in selling prices of steel products. Significant judgement is required in the estimation of net realisable value and allowance for slow moving inventories. Such estimation is subject to factors such as volatility in the steel price, current and expected future market demand and pricing competition. As such, we determined that this is a key audit matter.

Independent Auditor's Report

To the Members of AnnAik Limited

Key Audit Matters (cont'd)

Write down of inventories to net realisable value (cont'd)

As part of our audit, we attended inventory counts at all material inventory locations and observed management's process in identifying slow moving items. In addition, we evaluated the Group's processes and controls relating to sale and purchase of inventories. We also evaluated management's assumptions and estimates used to determine the write down amount through testing of the reliability of the sales movement reports, reviewing historical sales patterns and reading correspondence with customers on demands for inventories. Further, we performed testing on a sample of items to assess the cost and the estimation of net realisable value of inventory at those locations. Finally, we reviewed the accuracy and adequacy of the disclosures on the write down amount, and considered the sensitivity analysis in Notes 3.2(d) of the financial statements.

Impairment assessment of trade receivables

Management's impairment assessment of trade receivables has been determined to be a key audit matter because trade receivable balances are significant to the Group as they represent 21% of the total current assets of the Group. During the year, allowance for doubtful debt recognised in the profit or loss amounted to $20,000.

The collectability of trade receivables is a key element of the Group's working capital management, which is managed on an ongoing basis by management. The determination as to whether a trade receivable is collectable involves management judgement and accordingly, we have identified this as a key audit matter. Specific factors management considers include the age of the balance, location of customers, existence of disputes, recent historical payment patterns and any other available information concerning the creditworthiness of customers. Management uses this information to determine whether an allowance for impairment is required.

We evaluated the Group's processes and controls relating to the monitoring of trade receivables and review of credit risks arising from transactions with customers. In addition, our audit procedures included, amongst others, on a sample basis, obtaining trade receivable confirmations and evidence of receipts from the trade receivables subsequent to the year end. We also evaluated management's assumptions and estimates used to determine the trade receivables impairment amount through testing of the accuracy of the ageing of the trade receivables, analyses of ageing profile of the trade receivables to identify collection risks; and assessment of significant overdue individual trade receivables via obtaining evidence of receipts from the trade receivables subsequent to the year end, reviewing historical payment patterns and correspondence with customers on expected settlement dates. We assessed the adequacy of the disclosures on the trade receivables, considered the sensitivity analyses and the related credit risk and liquidity risk in Note 3.2(c) and Note 39 to the consolidated financial statements respectively.

Impairment assessment of property, plant and equipment

As at 31 December 2016, the Group's property, plant and equipment balance amounted to $29,702,000, representing 50% of the total non-current assets of the consolidated balance sheet. The property, plant and equipment is mainly deployed in the steel related business segments, including the distribution and manufacturing segments. The weak economic environment and the depressed steel price have affected the performance of the steel business segment and gives rise to a heightened risk of impairment to the plant and machineries of the Group. Based on the outcome of impairment test carried out by management, an impairment loss of $362,000 has been recognised on plant and machineries during the year.

As part of the impairment assessment, the carrying value of the plant and machineries is compared to the recoverable amount. These assets are reviewed, either on a stand-alone basis or as part of a wider cash-generating unit ("CGU"), for impairment using the higher of the value-in-use or fair value less costs to sell model. For steel distribution business segment, the assessment was performed based on value-in-use model where management's assumptions and judgement are used in estimating the underlying cash flow forecasts. For the steel manufacturing business segment, the assessment was performed based on fair value less cost to sell, where management has used the expertise of an external valuer to assess the fair value of the plant and machineries. As the impairment assessment required significant management's estimates and judgement in determining the recoverable amount, we have determined this as a key audit matter.

Independent Auditor's Report

To the Members of AnnAik Limited

Key Audit Matters (cont'd)

Impairment assessment of property, plant and equipment (cont'd)

Our audit procedures included, amongst others, evaluating the assumptions and methodologies used by the Group in estimating the recoverable amount. The value-in-use calculations involve the use of cash flow projections approved by management and the application of suitable discount rates. The cash flow projections included key assumptions of future revenues, profitability and related growth expectations. We checked that the cash flows were based on approved management budgets that reflected business plans, and evaluated management's forecasting process by comparing previous forecasts to actual results. We evaluated the assumptions used by comparing them to historical data as well as recent trends and market and economic outlooks. On the discount rates applied to determine present values, we have evaluated the rates by considering the key elements and risks of the respective cash flow projections, and making comparison to external observable data. For recoverable value assessment based on fair value less cost to sell, we have assessed the reliability of fair value less cost to disposal assessed by the external valuer, notably through considering the independence, reputation and competency of the external valuer, reviewing their scope of service and assessing the reasonableness of the valuation methodology and assumptions used. Finally, we reviewed the accuracy and adequacy of the disclosures on the impairment test in Note 10 to the financial statements.

Other Information

Management is responsible for other information. The other information comprises the information included in the annual report, but does not include the financial statements and our auditor's report thereon.

Our opinion on the financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Responsibilities of Management and Directors for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation of financial statements that give a true and fair view in accordance with the provisions of the Act and FRSs, and for devising and maintaining a system of internal accounting controls sufficient to provide a reasonable assurance that assets are safeguarded against loss from unauthorised use or disposition; and transactions are properly authorised and that they are recorded as necessary to permit the preparation of true and fair financial statements and to maintain accountability of assets.

In preparing the financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Group's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Group or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

The directors' responsibilities include overseeing the Group's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SSAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

Independent Auditor's Report

To the Members of AnnAik Limited

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements (cont'd)

As part of an audit in accordance with SSAs, we exercise professional judgement and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Group's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Group's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Group to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the group audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with the directors regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide the directors with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with the directors, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

Notes to the Financial Statements

For the financial year ended 31 December 2016

1. CORPORATE INFORMATION

AnnAik Limited (the "Company") is a limited liability company incorporated and domiciled in Singapore and is listed on the mainboard of the Singapore Exchange ("SGX-ST").

The registered office and principal place of business of the Company is located at 52, Tuas Avenue 9, Singapore 639193.

The principal activity of the Company is that of investment holding.

The principal activities of the subsidiaries, an associate and a joint venture are disclosed in Notes 14, 15 and 16 to the financial statements respectively.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

2.1 Basis of preparation

The consolidated financial statements of the Group and the balance sheet and statement of changes in equity of the Company have been prepared in accordance with Singapore Financial Reporting Standards ("FRS").

The financial statements have been prepared on a historical cost basis except as disclosed in the accounting policies below.

The financial statements are presented in Singapore Dollars ("SGD or $") and all values in the tables are rounded to the nearest thousand ("$'000") except when otherwise indicated.

The Accounting Standards Council announced on 29 May 2014 that Singapore incorporated companies listed on the Singapore Exchange will apply a new financial reporting framework identical to the International Financial Reporting Standards. The Group will adopt the new financial reporting framework on 1 January 2018.

2.2 Changes in accounting policies

The accounting policies adopted are consistent with those of the previous financial year except in the current financial year, the Group has adopted all the new and revised standards which are effective for annual financial periods beginning on or after 1 January 2016. The adoption of these standards did not have any material effect on the financial performance or position of the Group and the Company.

Notes to the Financial Statements

For the financial year ended 31 December 2016

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONT'D)

2.3 Standards issued but not yet effective

The Group has not adopted the following standards applicable to the Group that have been issued but not yet effective:

| Description | Effective for annual periods beginning on or after |
|--|---|
| Amendments to FRS 7 Disclosure Initiative | 1 January 2017 |
| FRS 109 Financial Instruments | 1 January 2018 |
| FRS 115 Revenue from Contracts with Customers | 1 January 2018 |
| FRS 116 Leases | 1 January 2019 |

Except for FRS 109, FRS 115 and FRS 116, the directors expect that the adoption of the other standards above will have no material impact on the financial statements in the period of initial application. The nature of the impending changes in accounting policy on adoption of FRS 109, FRS 115 and FRS 116 is described below.

FRS 109 Financial Instruments

FRS 109 introduces new requirements for classification and measurement of financial assets, impairment of financial assets and hedge accounting. Financial assets are classified according to their contractual cash flow characteristics and the business model under which they are held. The impairment requirements in FRS 109 are based on an expected credit loss model and replace the FRS 39 incurred loss model. Based on preliminary assessment, except for the classification of the financial assets, management has assessed that the adoption of FRS 109 is not likely to have significant impact to the consolidated financial statements in the initial year of adoption.

FRS 115 Revenue from Contracts with Customers

FRS 115 establishes a five-step model to account for revenue arising from contracts with customers. Under FRS 115, revenue is recognised at an amount that reflects the consideration which an entity expects to be entitled in exchange for transferring goods or services to a customer. The new revenue standard will supersede all current revenue recognition requirements under FRS. Either a full retrospective application or a modified retrospective application is required for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2018. Early adoption is permitted.

During 2016, the Group performed a preliminary assessment of FRS 115 which is subject to changes arising from a more detailed ongoing analysis. The Group is involved in manufacturing and sale of steel-related products and environmental business. The Group currently recognises a provision for the net margin arising from expected returns. Under FRS 115, an entity estimates the transaction price and recognises revenue based on the amounts to which the entity expects to be entitled through the end of the return period, and recognises such amount of expected returns as a refund liability, representing its obligation to return the customer's consideration. The Group expects to recognise a liability for the refund obligation and an asset for the right to recover the returned goods under FRS 115.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONT'D)

2.3 Standards issued but not yet effective (cont'd)

FRS 115 Revenue from Contracts with Customers (cont'd)

Transition

The following practical expedients are available when applying FRS 115 retrospectively.

- For completed contracts, an entity need not restate contracts that begin and end with the same annual reporting period or are completed contracts at the beginning of the earliest period presented.
- For completed contracts that have variable consideration, an entity may use the transaction price at the date the contract was completed rather than estimating the variable consideration amounts in the comparative reporting periods; and
- For contracts that were modified before the beginning of the earliest period presented, an entity need not retrospectively restate the contract for those contract modifications. Instead, an entity shall reflect the aggregate effect of all of the modifications that occur before the beginning of the earliest period presented when:
 - identifying the satisfied and unsatisfied performance obligations;
 - determining the transaction price; and
 - allocating the transaction price to the satisfied and unsatisfied performance obligations.
- For all reporting periods presented before the date of initial application, an entity need not disclose the amount of the transaction price allocated to the remaining performance obligations and an explanation of when the entity expects to recognise that amount as revenue.

The Group will continue to review its sales arrangements and will continue to evaluate the impact from the adoption of FRS115.

FRS 116 Leases

FRS 116 requires lessees to recognise most leases on balance sheets to reflect the rights to use the leased assets and the associated obligations for lease payments as well as the corresponding interest expense and depreciation charges. The standard includes two recognition exemption for lessees – leases of 'low value' assets and short-term leases. The new standard is effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2019.

The Group is currently assessing the impact of the new standard and plans to adopt the new standard on the required effective date. The Group expects the adoption of the new standard will result in increase in total assets and total liabilities, EBITDA and gearing ratio.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONT'D)

2.4 Basis of consolidation and business combinations

(a) Basis of consolidation

The consolidated financial statements comprise the financial statements of the Company and its subsidiaries as at the end of the reporting period. The financial statements of the subsidiaries used in the preparation of the consolidated financial statements are prepared for the same reporting date as the Company. Consistent accounting policies are applied to like transactions and events in similar circumstances.

All intra-group balances, income and expenses and unrealised gains and losses resulting from intra-group transactions and dividends are eliminated in full.

Subsidiaries are consolidated from the date of acquisition, being the date on which the Group obtains control, and continue to be consolidated until the date that such control ceases.

Losses within a subsidiary are attributed to the non-controlling interest even if that results in a deficit balance.

A change in the ownership interest of a subsidiary, without a loss of control, is accounted for as an equity transaction. If the Group loses control over a subsidiary, it:

- De-recognises the assets (including goodwill) and liabilities of the subsidiary at their carrying amounts at the date when control is lost;
- De-recognises the carrying amount of any non-controlling interest;
- De-recognises the cumulative translation differences recorded in equity;
- Recognises the fair value of the consideration received;
- Recognises the fair value of any investment retained;
- Recognises any surplus or deficit in profit or loss;
- Re-classifies the Group's share of components previously recognised in other comprehensive income to profit or loss or retained earnings, as appropriate.

(b) Business combinations and goodwill

Business combinations are accounted for by applying the acquisition method. Identifiable assets acquired and liabilities assumed in a business combination are measured initially at their fair values at the acquisition date. Acquisition-related costs are recognised as expenses in the periods in which the costs are incurred and the services are received.

Any contingent consideration to be transferred by the acquirer will be recognised at fair value at the acquisition date. Subsequent changes to the fair value of the contingent consideration which is deemed to be an asset or liability, will be recognised in profit or loss.

The Group elects for each individual business combination, whether non-controlling interest in the acquiree (if any), that are present ownership interests and entitle their holders to a proportionate share of net assets in the event of liquidation, is recognised on the acquisition date at fair value, or at the non-controlling interest's proportionate share of the acquiree's identifiable net assets. Other components of non-controlling interests are measured at their acquisition date fair value, unless another measurement basis is required by another FRS.

For the financial year ended 31 December 2016

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONT'D)

2.4 Basis of consolidation and business combinations (cont'd)

(b) Business combinations and goodwill (cont'd)

Any excess of the sum of the fair value of the consideration transferred in the business combination, the amount of non-controlling interest in the acquiree (if any), and the fair value of the Group's previously held equity interest in the acquiree (if any), over the net fair value of the acquiree's identifiable assets and liabilities is recorded as goodwill. In instances where the latter amount exceeds the former, the excess is recognised as gain on bargain purchase in profit or loss on the acquisition date.

Goodwill is initially measured at cost. Following initial recognition, goodwill is measured at cost less any accumulated impairment losses.

For the purpose of impairment testing, goodwill acquired in a business combination is, from the acquisition date, allocated to the Group's cash-generating units that are expected to benefit from the synergies of the combination, irrespective of whether other assets or liabilities of the acquiree are assigned to those units.

The cash-generating units to which goodwill have been allocated is tested for impairment annually and whenever there is an indication that the cash-generating unit may be impaired. Impairment is determined for goodwill by assessing the recoverable amount of each cash-generating unit (or group of cash-generating units) to which the goodwill relates. Where the recoverable amount of the cash-generating unit is less than the carrying amount, an impairment loss is recognised in profit or loss. Impairment losses recognised for goodwill are not reversed in subsequent periods.

Where goodwill forms part of a cash-generating unit and part of the operation within that cash-generating unit is disposed of, the goodwill associated with the operation disposed of is included in the carrying amount of the operation when determining the gain or loss on disposal of the operation. Goodwill disposed of in this circumstance is measured based on the relative fair values of the operations disposed of and the portion of the cash-generating unit retained.

2.5 Transactions with non-controlling interests

Non-controlling interest ("NCI") represents the equity in subsidiaries not attributable, directly or indirectly, to owners of the Company, and are presented separately in the consolidated statement of comprehensive income and within equity in the consolidated balance sheet, separately from equity attributable to owners of the Company.

Changes in the Company's ownership interest in a subsidiary that do not result in a loss of control are accounted for as equity transactions. In such circumstances, the carrying amounts of the controlling and non-controlling interests are adjusted to reflect the changes in their relative interests in the subsidiary. Any difference between the amount by which the non-controlling interest is adjusted and the fair value of the consideration paid or received is recognised directly in equity and attributed to owners of the Company.

2.6 Foreign currency

The financial statements are presented in Singapore Dollars, which is also the Company's functional currency. Each entity in the Group determines its own functional currency and items included in the financial statements of each entity are measured using that functional currency.

Notes to the Financial Statements

For the financial year ended 31 December 2016

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONT'D)

2.6 Foreign currency (cont'd)

(a) Transactions and balances

Transactions in foreign currencies are measured in the respective functional currencies of the Company and its subsidiaries and are recorded on initial recognition in the functional currencies at exchange rates approximating those ruling at the transaction dates. Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated at the rate of exchange ruling at the end of the reporting period. Non-monetary items that are measured in terms of historical cost in a foreign currency are translated using the exchange rates as at the dates of the initial transactions. Non-monetary items measured at fair value in a foreign currency are translated using the exchange rates at the date when the fair value was measured.

Exchange differences arising on the settlement of monetary items or on translating monetary items at the end of the reporting period are recognised in profit or loss.

(b) Consolidated financial statements

For consolidation purpose, the assets and liabilities of foreign operations are translated into SGD at the rate of exchange ruling at the end of the reporting period and their profit or loss are translated at the average exchange rate for the year. The exchange differences arising on the translation are recognised in other comprehensive income. On disposal of a foreign operation, the component of other comprehensive income relating to that particular foreign operation is recognised in profit or loss.

In the case of a partial disposal without loss of control of a subsidiary that includes a foreign operation, the proportionate share of the cumulative amount of the exchange differences are re-attributed to non-controlling interest and are not recognised in profit or loss. For partial disposals of associates or jointly controlled entities that are foreign operations, the proportionate share of the accumulated exchange differences is reclassified to profit or loss.

2.7 Subsidiaries

A subsidiary is an investee that is controlled by the Group. The Group controls an investee when it is exposed, or has rights, to variable returns from its involvement with the investee and has the ability to affect those returns through its power over the investee.

In the Company's separate financial statements, investment in subsidiaries is accounted for at cost less impairment losses.

2.8 Joint arrangements

A joint arrangement is a contractual arrangement whereby two or more parties have joint control. Joint control is the contractually agreed sharing of control of an arrangement, which exists only when decisions about the relevant activities require the unanimous consent of the parties sharing control.

A joint arrangement is classified either as joint operation or joint venture, based on the rights and obligations of the parties to the arrangement.

To the extent the joint arrangement provides the Group with rights to the assets and obligations for the liabilities relating to the arrangement, the arrangement is a joint operation. To the extent the joint arrangement provides the Group with rights to the net assets of the arrangement, the arrangement is a joint venture.

The Group's joint arrangement has been determined to be a joint venture, where the Group recognises its interest in a joint venture as an investment and accounts for the investment using the equity method. The accounting policy for investment in joint venture is set out in Note 2.9.

Notes to the Financial Statements

For the financial year ended 31 December 2016

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONT'D)

2.9 Joint venture and associate

An associate is an entity over which the Group has the power to participate in the financial and operating policy decisions of the investee but does not have control or joint control of those policies.

The Group accounts for its investment in associate and joint venture using the equity method from the date on which it becomes an associate or joint venture.

On acquisition of the investment, any excess of the cost of the investment over the Group's share of the net fair value of the investee's identifiable assets and liabilities is accounted as goodwill and is included in the carrying amount of the investment. Any excess of the Group's share of the net fair value of the investee's identifiable assets and liabilities over the cost of the investment is included as income in the determination of the entity's share of the associate or joint venture's profit or loss in the period in which the investment is acquired.

Under the equity method, the investment in associate or joint venture are carried in the balance sheet at cost plus post-acquisition changes in the Group's share of net assets of the associate or joint venture. The profit or loss reflects the share of results of the operations of the associate or joint venture. Distributions received from the associate or joint venture reduce the carrying amount of the investment. Where there has been a change recognised in other comprehensive income by the associate or joint venture, the Group recognises its share of such changes in other comprehensive income. Unrealised gains and losses resulting from transactions between the Group and associate or joint venture are eliminated to the extent of the interest in the associate or joint venture.

When the Group's share of losses in an associate or joint venture equals or exceeds its interest in the associate or joint venture, the Group does not recognise further losses, unless it has incurred obligations or made payments on behalf of the associate or joint venture.

After application of the equity method, the Group determines whether it is necessary to recognise an additional impairment loss on the Group's investment in associate or joint ventures. The Group determines at the end of each reporting period whether there is any objective evidence that the investment in the associate or joint venture is impaired. If this is the case, the Group calculates the amount of impairment as the difference between the recoverable amount of the associate or joint venture and its carrying value and recognises the amount in profit or loss.

The financial statements of the associate and joint venture are prepared as the same reporting date as the Company. Where necessary, adjustments are made to bring the accounting policies in line with those of the Group.

2.10 Property, plant and equipment

All items of property, plant and equipment are initially recorded at cost. Subsequent to recognition, property, plant and equipment are measured at cost less accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment losses.

Assets in the course of construction for production, supply or administrative purposes, or for purposes not yet determined, are carried at cost, less any recognised impairment loss. Cost includes professional fees and, for qualifying assets, borrowing costs capitalised in accordance with the Group's accounting policy. Depreciation of these assets, on the same basis as other assets, commences when the assets are ready for their intended use.

Freehold land has an unlimited useful life and therefore is not depreciated.

Notes to the Financial Statements

For the financial year ended 31 December 2016

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONT'D)

2.10 Property, plant and equipment (cont'd)

Depreciation is computed on a straight-line basis over the estimated useful life of the asset as follows:

| | | |
|---|---|-------------------------|
| Freehold building | - | 44 years |
| Leasehold building | - | lease terms of 30 years |
| Plant and equipment | - | 5 to 10 years |
| Motor vehicles | - | 5 to 8 years |
| Furniture, renovation, fixtures and equipment | - | 5 to 10 years |

The carrying values of property, plant and equipment are reviewed for impairment when events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying value may not be recoverable.

The residual values, useful life and depreciation method are reviewed at each financial year-end, and adjusted prospectively, if appropriate.

An item of property, plant and equipment is derecognised upon disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected from its use or disposal. Any gain or loss arising on derecognition of the asset is included in the profit or loss in the year the asset is derecognised.

2.11 Intangible assets

(a) Goodwill

Goodwill is initially measured at cost. Following initial recognition, goodwill is measured at cost less any accumulated impairment losses.

For the purpose of impairment testing, goodwill acquired in a business combination is, from the acquisition date, allocated to each of the Group's cash-generating units that are expected to benefit from the synergies of the combination, irrespective of whether other assets or liabilities of the acquiree are assigned to those units.

(b) Other intangible assets

Intangible assets acquired separately are measured initially at cost. The cost of intangible assets acquired in a business combination is their fair value as at the date of acquisition. Following initial acquisition, intangible assets are carried at cost less any accumulated amortisation and any accumulated impairment losses. Internally generated intangible assets, excluding capitalised development costs, are not capitalised and expenditure is reflected in profit or loss in the year in which the expenditure is incurred. The useful lives of intangible assets are assessed as either finite or indefinite.

Intangible assets with finite useful lives are amortised over the estimated useful lives and assessed for impairment whenever there is an indication that the intangible asset may be impaired. The amortisation period and the amortisation method are reviewed at least at each financial year-end. Changes in the expected useful life or the expected pattern of consumption of future economic benefits embodied in the asset is accounted for by changing the amortisation period or method, as appropriate, and are treated as changes in accounting estimates. The amortisation expense on intangible assets with finite useful lives is recognised in profit or loss in the expense category consistent with the function of the intangible asset.

For the financial year ended 31 December 2016

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONT'D)

2.11 Intangible assets (cont'd)

(b) Other intangible assets (cont'd)

Intangible assets with indefinite useful lives or not yet available for use are tested for impairment annually, or more frequently if the events and circumstances indicate that the carrying value may be impaired either individually or at the cash-generating unit level. Such intangible assets are not amortised. The useful life of an intangible asset with an indefinite useful life is reviewed annually to determine whether the useful life assessment continues to be supportable. If not, the change in useful life from indefinite to finite is made on a prospective basis.

Gains or losses arising from de-recognition of an intangible asset are measured as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset and are recognised in profit or loss when the asset is derecognised.

Patent rights

The patent rights relate to purchase of the rights to use the Biological Trickling Filter patent in relation to rural wastewater treatment. The rights is amortised on a straight-line basis over the remaining contractual life of 11 years, from the date of purchase of such rights until 31 March 2026.

Service concession arrangements

Intangible asset representing consideration received for construction services provided under service concession arrangements are recognised to the extent that the Group has a right to charge fees for the usage of the wastewater treatment plants and are amortised on a straight-line basis over the concession period from commencement of the operation of the plants.

Technical know-how

Technical know-how is amortised on a straight-line basis over 10 years commencing from the date of completion of the wastewater treatment plant.

Club membership

The useful life of club membership is indefinite as it is lifetime membership and has no dates of expiry.

2.12 Impairment of non-financial assets

The Group assesses at each reporting date whether there is an indication that an asset may be impaired. If any indication exists, or when an annual impairment testing for an asset is required, the Group makes an estimate of the asset's recoverable amount.

An asset's recoverable amount is the higher of an asset's or cash-generating unit's fair value less costs to sell and its value in use and is determined for an individual asset, unless the asset does not generate cash inflows that are largely independent of those from other assets or groups of assets. Where the carrying amount of an asset or cash-generating unit exceeds its recoverable amount, the asset is considered impaired and is written down to its recoverable amount.

Impairment losses of continuing operations are recognised in profit or loss.

Notes to the Financial Statements

For the financial year ended 31 December 2016

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONT'D)

2.12 Impairment of non-financial assets (cont'd)

A previously recognised impairment loss is reversed only if there has been a change in the estimates used to determine the asset's recoverable amount since the last impairment loss was recognised. If that is the case, the carrying amount of the asset is increased to its recoverable amount. That increase cannot exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined, net of depreciation, had no impairment loss been recognised previously. Such reversal is recognised in profit or loss.

2.13 Financial instruments

(a) Financial assets

Initial recognition and measurement

Financial assets are recognised when, and only when, the Group becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the financial instrument. The Group determines the classification of its financial assets at initial recognition.

When financial assets are recognised initially, they are measured at fair value, plus, in the case of financial assets not at fair value through profit or loss, directly attributable transaction costs.

Subsequent measurement

The subsequent measurement of financial assets depends on their classification as follows:

(i) Loans and receivables

Non-derivative financial assets with fixed or determinable payments that are not quoted in an active market are classified as loans and receivables. Subsequent to initial recognition, loans and receivables are measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method, less impairment. Gains and losses are recognised in profit or loss when the loans and receivables are derecognised or impaired, and through the amortisation process.

(ii) Available-for-sale financial assets

Available-for-sale financial assets include equity securities. Equity investments classified as available-for sale are those, which are neither classified as held for trading nor designated at fair value through profit or loss.

After initial recognition, available-for-sale financial assets are subsequently measured at fair value. Any gains or losses from changes in fair value of the financial assets are recognised in other comprehensive income, except that impairment losses, foreign exchange gains and losses on monetary instruments and interest calculated using the effective interest method are recognised in profit or loss. The cumulative gain or loss previously recognised in other comprehensive income is reclassified from equity to profit or loss as a reclassification adjustment when the financial asset is de-recognised.

Investments in equity instruments whose fair value cannot be reliably measured are measured at cost less impairment loss.

For the financial year ended 31 December 2016

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONT'D)

2.13 Financial instruments (cont'd)

(a) Financial assets (cont'd)

De-recognition

A financial asset is de-recognised where the contractual right to receive cash flows from the asset has expired. On de-recognition of a financial asset in its entirety, the difference between the carrying amount and the sum of the consideration received and any cumulative gain or loss that had been recognised in other comprehensive income is recognised in profit or loss.

(b) Financial liabilities

Initial recognition and measurement

Financial liabilities are recognised when, and only when, the Group becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the financial instrument. The Group determines the classification of its financial liabilities at initial recognition.

All financial liabilities are recognised initially at fair value plus in the case of financial liabilities not at fair value through profit or loss, directly attributable transaction costs.

Subsequent measurement

After initial recognition, financial liabilities that are not carried at fair value through profit or loss are subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method. Gains and losses are recognised in profit or loss when the liabilities are derecognised, and through the amortisation process.

De-recognition

A financial liability is de-recognised when the obligation under the liability is discharged or cancelled or expired. When an existing financial liability is replaced by another from the same lender on substantially different terms, or the terms of an existing liability are substantially modified, such an exchange or modification is treated as a de-recognition of the original liability and the recognition of a new liability, and the difference in the respective carrying amounts is recognised in profit or loss.

(c) Offsetting of financial instruments

Financial assets and financial liabilities are offset and the net amount is presented in the balance sheets, when and only when, there is a currently enforceable legal right to set off the recognised amounts and there is an intention to settle on a net basis, or to realise the assets and settle the liabilities simultaneously.

Notes to the Financial Statements

For the financial year ended 31 December 2016

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONT'D)

2.14 Impairment of financial assets

The Group assesses at each reporting date whether there is any objective evidence that a financial asset is impaired.

(a) Financial assets carried at amortised cost

For financial assets carried at amortised cost, the Group first assesses whether objective evidence of impairment exists individually for financial assets that are individually significant, or collectively for financial assets that are not individually significant. If the Group determines that no objective evidence of impairment exists for an individually assessed financial asset, whether significant or not, it includes the asset in a group of financial assets with similar credit risk characteristics and collectively assesses them for impairment. Assets that are individually assessed for impairment and for which an impairment loss is, or continues to be recognised are not included in a collective assessment of impairment.

If there is objective evidence that an impairment loss on financial assets carried at amortised cost has been incurred, the amount of the loss is measured as the difference between the assets' carrying amount and the present value of estimated future cash flows discounted at the financial asset's original effective interest rate. If a loan has a variable interest rate, the discount rate for measuring any impairment loss is the current effective interest rate. The carrying amount of the asset is reduced through the use of an allowance account. The impairment loss is recognised in profit or loss.

When the asset becomes uncollectible, the carrying amount of impaired financial assets is reduced directly or if an amount was charged to the allowance account, the amounts charged to the allowance account are written off against the carrying value of the financial asset.

To determine whether there is objective evidence that an impairment loss on financial assets has been incurred, the Group considers factors such as the probability of insolvency or significant financial difficulties of the debtor and default or significant delay in payments.

If in a subsequent period, the amount of the impairment loss decreases and the decrease can be related objectively to an event occurring after the impairment was recognised, the previously recognised impairment loss is reversed to the extent that the carrying amount of the asset does not exceed its amortised cost at the reversal date. The amount of reversal is recognised in profit or loss.

(b) Financial assets carried at cost

If there is objective evidence (such as significant adverse changes in the business environment where the issuer operates, probability of insolvency or significant financial difficulties of the issuer) that an impairment loss on financial assets carried at cost has been incurred, the amount of the loss is measured as the difference between the asset's carrying amount and the present value of estimated future cash flows discounted at the current market rate of return for a similar financial asset. Such impairment losses are not reversed in subsequent periods.

(c) Available-for-sale financial assets

In the case of equity investments classified as available-for-sale, objective evidence of impairment include (i) significant financial difficulty of the issuer or obligor; (ii) information about significant changes with an adverse effect that have taken place in the technological, market, economic or legal environment in which the issuer operates, and indicates that the cost of the investment in equity instrument may not be recovered; and (iii) a significant or prolonged decline in the fair value of the investment below its costs. 'Significant' is to be evaluated against the original cost of the investment and 'prolonged' against the period in which the fair value has been below its original cost.

Notes to the Financial Statements

For the financial year ended 31 December 2016

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONT'D)

2.14 Impairment of financial assets (cont'd)

(c) Available-for-sale financial assets (cont'd)

If an available-for-sale financial asset is impaired, an amount comprising the difference between its acquisition cost (net of any principal repayment and amortisation) and its current fair value, less any impairment loss previously recognised in profit or loss, is transferred from other comprehensive income and recognised in profit or loss. Reversals of impairment losses in respect of equity instruments are not recognised in profit or loss; increase in their fair value after impairment are recognised directly in other comprehensive income.

2.15 Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents comprise cash at bank and on hand, demand deposits, and short-term, highly liquid investments that are readily convertible to known amount of cash and which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value. These also include bank overdrafts that form an integral part of the Group's cash management.

2.16 Inventories

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost and net realisable value. Costs incurred in bringing the inventories to their present location and condition are accounted for as follows:

- Raw materials (for manufacturing products): purchase costs on a weighted average basis.
- Finished goods and work-in-progress (for manufacturing products): costs of direct materials and labour and a proportion of manufacturing overheads based on normal operating capacity. These costs are assigned on a weighted average basis.
- Finished goods (for distribution products and engineering): purchase costs on a first-in first-out basis.

Where necessary, allowance is provided for damaged, obsolete and slow moving items to adjust the carrying value of inventories to the lower of cost and net realisable value.

Net realisable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business, less estimated costs of completion and the estimated costs necessary to make the sale.

2.17 Segment reporting

For management purposes, the Group is organised into business segment. A business segment is a distinguishable component of the Group that is engaged in providing products or services that are subject to risks and returns that are different from those of other business segments. The operating business segments are managed separately by the general managers in order to allocate resources to the segments and to assess the segment performance. Additional disclosures on each of these segments are shown in Note 38, including the factors to identify the reportable segments and the measurement basis of segment information.

2.18 Prepaid land rental

Prepaid land rental represents payments in advance for the rights to use lands for an agreed period. The amounts prepaid are amortised on a straight-line basis over the lease term ranging from 25 to 50 years.

Notes to the Financial Statements

For the financial year ended 31 December 2016

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONT'D)

2.19 Provisions

Provisions are recognised when the Group has a present obligation (legal or constructive) as a result of a past event, it is probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation and the amount of the obligation can be estimated reliably.

Provisions are reviewed at the end of each reporting period and adjusted to reflect the current best estimate. If it is no longer probable that an outflow of economic resources will be required to settle the obligation, the provision is reversed. If the effect of the time value of money is material, provisions are discounted using a current pre tax rate that reflects, where appropriate, the risks specific to the liability. When discounting is used, the increase in the provision due to the passage of time is recognised as a finance cost.

Deferred consideration payable

Deferred consideration arises when settlement of all or any part of the purchase cost of an asset is deferred. It is stated at fair value at the date of purchase, which is determined by discounting the future cash flows to present value at that date. Interest is imputed on the fair value of non-interest bearing deferred consideration at the discount rate and expensed within finance cost. At the end of each reporting period, deferred consideration comprises the remaining deferred consideration valued at acquisition plus interest imputed on such amounts from date of purchase to the end of the reporting period. Subsequent changes to the fair value of the deferred consideration are recognised in the profit or loss.

2.20 Government grants

Government grants are recognised when there is reasonable assurance that the grant will be received and all attaching conditions will be complied with. Where the grant relates to an asset, the fair value is recognised as deferred capital grant on the balance sheet and is amortised to profit or loss over the expected useful life of the relevant asset by equal annual instalments.

Where loans or similar assistance are provided by governments or related institutions with an interest rate below the current applicable market rate, the effect of this favourable interest is regarded as additional government grant.

Government grant shall be recognised in profit or loss on a systematic basis over the periods in which the entity recognises as expenses the related costs for which the grants are intended to compensate. Grants related to income may be presented as a credit in profit or loss, either separately or under a general heading such as "Other income". Alternatively, they are deducted in reporting the related expenses.

2.21 Financial guarantee

A financial guarantee contract is a contract that requires the issuer to make specified payments to reimburse the holder for a loss it incurs because a specified debtor fails to make payment when due in accordance with the terms of a debt instrument.

Financial guarantees are recognised initially as a liability at fair value, adjusted for transactions costs that are directly attributable to the issuance of the guarantee. Subsequent to initial recognition, financial guarantees are recognised as income in profit or loss over the period of the guarantee. If it is probable that the liability will be higher than the amount initially recognised less amortisation, the liability is recorded at the higher amount with the difference charged to profit or loss.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONT'D)

2.22 Borrowing costs

Borrowing costs are capitalised as part of the cost of a qualifying asset if they are directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of that asset. Capitalisation of borrowing costs commences when the activities to prepare the asset for its intended use or sale are in progress and the expenditures and borrowing costs are incurred. Borrowing costs are capitalised until the assets are substantially completed for their intended use or sale.

All other borrowing costs are expensed in the period they occur. Borrowing costs consist of interest and other costs that an entity incurs in connection with the borrowing of funds.

2.23 Employee benefits

(a) Defined contribution plans

The Group participates in the national pension schemes as defined by the laws of the countries in which it has operations. The Singapore companies in the Group makes contributions to the Central Provident Fund scheme in Singapore, a defined contribution pension scheme. In addition, the subsidiary companies in the People's Republic of China ("PRC") pay fixed contributions into the retirement insurance and medical insurance schemes organised by the social security bureau and has no further payment obligations once the contributions have been paid. Contributions to defined contribution pension schemes are recognised as an expense in the period in which the related service is performed.

(b) Employee leave entitlement

Employee entitlements to annual leave are recognised as a liability when they accrue to employees. The estimated liability for leave is recognised for services rendered by employees up to the end of the reporting period.

(c) Employee share option plans

Employees of the Group receive remuneration in the form of share options as consideration for services rendered. The cost of these equity-settled transactions with employees is measured by reference to the fair value of the options at the date on which the options are granted. This cost is recognised in profit or loss, with a corresponding increase in the share option reserve, over the vesting period. The cumulative expense recognised at each reporting date until the vesting date reflects the extent to which the vesting period has expired and the Group's best estimate of the number of options that will ultimately vest. The charge or credit to profit or loss for a period represents the movement in cumulative expense recognised as at the beginning and end of that period and is recognised in employee benefit expense.

No expense is recognised for options that do not ultimately vest, except for options where vesting is conditional upon a market condition or non-vesting condition, which are treated as vesting irrespective of whether or not the market or non-vesting condition is satisfied. The share option reserve is transferred to retained earnings upon expiry of the share options. When the options are exercised, the share option reserve is transferred to share capital if new shares are issued, or to treasury shares if the options are satisfied by the reissuance of treasury shares.

2.24 Leases

As lessee

Finance leases which transfer to the Group substantially all the risks and rewards incidental to ownership of the leased item, are capitalised at the inception of the lease at the fair value of the leased asset or, if lower, at the present value of the minimum lease payments. Any initial direct costs are also added to the amount capitalised. Lease payments are apportioned between the finance charges and reduction of the lease liability so as to achieve a constant rate of interest on the remaining balance of the liability. Finance charges are charged to profit or loss. Contingent rents, if any, are charged as expenses in the periods in which they are incurred.

Capitalised leased assets are depreciated over the shorter of the estimated useful life of the asset and the lease term, if there is no reasonable certainty that the Group will obtain ownership by the end of the lease term.

Operating lease payments are recognised as an expense in profit or loss on a straight-line basis over the lease term. The aggregate benefit of incentives provided by the lessor is recognised as a reduction of rental expense over the lease term on a straight-line basis.

2.25 Revenue

Revenue is recognised to the extent that it is probable that the economic benefits will flow to the Group and the revenue can be reliably measured regardless of when the payment is made. Revenue is measured at the fair value of consideration received or receivable. The Group assesses its revenue arrangements to determine if it is acting as principal or agent.

(a) Sale of goods

Revenue from the sale of goods is recognised when all the following conditions are satisfied:

- the Group has transferred to the buyer the significant risks and rewards of ownership of the goods;
- the Group retains neither continuing managerial involvement to the degree usually associated with ownership nor effective control over the goods sold;
- the amount of revenue can be measured reliably;
- it is probable that the economic benefits associated with the transaction will flow to the entity; and
- the costs incurred or to be incurred in respect of the transaction can be measured reliably.

(b) Service income from environmental business

Service income of the Group's environmental business is recognised when the services have been rendered.

(c) Interest income

Interest income is accrued on a time basis, by reference to the principal outstanding and at the effective interest rate applicable.

(d) Dividend income

Dividend income from investments is recognised when the shareholders' right to receive payment has been established.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONT'D)

2.26 Taxes

(a) Current income tax

Current income tax assets and liabilities for the current and prior periods are measured at the amount expected to be recovered from or paid to the taxation authorities. The tax rates and tax laws used to compute the amount are those that are enacted or substantively enacted at the end of the reporting period, in the countries where the Group operates and generates taxable income.

Current income taxes are recognised in profit or loss except to the extent that the tax relates to items recognised outside profit or loss, either in other comprehensive income or directly in equity. Management periodically evaluates positions taken in the tax returns with respect to situations in which applicable tax regulations are subject to interpretation and establishes provisions where appropriate.

(b) Deferred tax

Deferred tax is provided using the liability method on temporary differences at the end of the reporting period between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts for financial reporting purposes.

Deferred tax liabilities are recognised for all temporary differences, except:

- Where the deferred tax liability arises from the initial recognition of goodwill or of an asset or liability in a transaction that is not a business combination and, at the time of the transaction, affects neither the accounting profit nor taxable profit or loss; and
- In respect of taxable temporary differences associated with investments in subsidiaries, associate and joint venture, where the timing of the reversal of the temporary differences can be controlled and it is probable that the temporary differences will not reverse in the foreseeable future.

Deferred tax assets are recognised for all deductible temporary differences, carry forward of unused tax credits and unused tax losses, to the extent that it is probable that taxable profit will be available against which the deductible temporary differences, and the carry forward of unused tax credits and unused tax losses can be utilised except:

- Where the deferred tax asset relating to the deductible temporary difference arises from the initial recognition of an asset or liability in a transaction that is not a business combination and, at the time of the transaction, affects neither the accounting profit nor taxable profit or loss; and
- In respect of deductible temporary differences associated with investments in subsidiaries, associate and joint venture, deferred tax assets are recognised only to the extent that it is probable that the temporary differences will reverse in the foreseeable future and taxable profit will be available against which the temporary differences can be utilised.

The carrying amount of deferred tax assets is reviewed at the end of each reporting period and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profit will be available to allow all or part of the deferred tax asset to be utilised. Unrecognised deferred tax assets are reassessed at the end of each reporting period and are recognised to the extent that it has become probable that future taxable profit will allow the deferred tax asset to be recovered.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONT'D)

2.26 Taxes (cont'd)

(b) Deferred tax (cont'd)

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply in the year when the asset is realised or the liability is settled, based on tax rates (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted at the end of each reporting period.

Deferred tax relating to items recognised outside profit or loss is recognised outside profit or loss. Deferred tax items are recognised in correlation to the underlying transaction either in other comprehensive income or directly in equity and deferred tax arising from a business combination is adjusted against goodwill on acquisition.

(c) Value added tax ("VAT") and Goods and Services Tax ("GST")

Revenues, expenses and assets are recognised net of the amount of VAT/GST except:

- Where the VAT/GST incurred on a purchase of assets or services is not recoverable from the taxation authority, in which case the VAT/GST is recognised as part of the cost of acquisition of the asset or as part of the expense item as applicable; and
- Receivables and payables that are stated with the amount of VAT/GST included.

2.27 Share capital and share issuance expenses

Proceeds from issuance of ordinary shares are recognised as share capital in equity. Incremental costs directly attributable to the issuance of ordinary shares are deducted against share capital.

2.28 Contingencies

A contingent liability is:

- (a) a possible obligation that arises from past events and whose existence will be confirmed only by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events not wholly within the control of the Group; or
- (b) a present obligation that arises from past events but is not recognised because:
 - (i) It is not probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation; or
 - (ii) The amount of the obligation cannot be measured with sufficient reliability.

A contingent asset is a possible asset that arises from past events and whose existence will be confirmed only by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events not wholly within the control of the Group.

Contingent liabilities and assets are not recognised on the balance sheet of the Group, except for contingent liabilities assumed in a business combination that are present obligations and which the fair values can be reliably determined.

3. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING JUDGEMENTS AND ESTIMATES

The preparation of the Group's consolidated financial statements requires management to make judgements, estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of revenues, expenses, assets and liabilities, and the disclosure of contingent liabilities at the end of each reporting period. However, uncertainty about these assumptions and estimates could result in outcomes that could require a material adjustment to the carrying amount of the asset or liability affected in the future periods.

3.1 Judgements made in applying accounting policies

In the process of applying the Group's accounting policies, management has made the following judgements which have the most significant effect on the amounts recognised in the consolidated financial statements:

(a) Business registration of People's Republic of China ("PRC") entities

The Group's operations in the PRC are governed by the legal system of the PRC. The PRC legal system is a codified system with written laws, regulations, rules and other regulatory documents. In the prior years, by virtue of ownership agreements entered with certain PRC individuals which resulted in changes to the Group's entity interest in its two subsidiaries and an associate of the Group based in PRC, the business registration files of these subsidiaries and associate have not been amended accordingly to reflect the current shareholding structure. Management effected and completed the amendment of the business registration file for one of the subsidiaries in 2011.

In the previous years, management has obtained legal advice that the current business registrations of the other subsidiary and the associate do not expose the Group to any non-compliance with the PRC legal system. The established understanding has been confirmed with legal practitioner on an annual basis. Accordingly, the non-controlling interests and the investment in an associate are accounted for based on the equity interest in the concerned PRC entities taking into account the ownership agreements entered with the certain PRC individuals.

The non-controlling interests of subsidiaries and investment in associate attributable to the PRC individuals are $362,000 (2015: $360,000) and $2,138,000 (2015: $2,018,000) respectively.

(b) Income taxes

Uncertainties exist with respect to the interpretation of complex tax regulations and the amount and timing of future taxable income. Given the wide range of international business relationships and the long-term nature and complexity of existing contractual agreements, differences arising between the actual results and the assumptions made, or future changes to such assumptions, could necessitate future adjustments to tax provisions already recorded. The Group establishes provisions, based on reasonable estimates, for possible consequences of audits by the tax authorities of the respective countries in which it operates. The amount of such provisions is based on various factors, such as experience of previous tax audits and differing interpretations of tax regulations by the taxable entity and the relevant tax authority. Such differences of interpretation may arise on a wide variety of issues depending on the conditions prevailing in the respective company's domicile.

3. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING JUDGEMENTS AND ESTIMATES (CONT'D)

3.1 Judgements made in applying accounting policies (cont'd)

(c) Determination of control and joint control

Determining if an investor has power requires judgment and taking into account all facts and circumstances.

Investment in Ichinose Emico Valves (S) Pte Ltd

The Group has a 50% direct equity interest in an entity, Ichinose Emico Valves (S) Pte Ltd ("Ichinose"), where the remaining 50% equity interest is equally held by two other unrelated parties. It is important to consider that the Group holds a large part of the votes, albeit not majority. There is no other single shareholder that holds more than the Group's voting interest in the investment. Further, it is noted that the relevant activities for the investment are decided by the board of directors, which is formed by two members appointed by the Group and remaining two from the other two shareholders. The Group's representative shall be appointed as chairman of board meetings and will be given a casting vote in the case of equality of votes. The quorum can be achieved through the attendance of 2 directors. Accordingly, management has determined that Ichinose is a subsidiary of the Group in view of the shareholder's rights and demonstration of control over the decisions of the relevant activities of the investment. Management has accounted for the investment in Ichinose as a subsidiary in accordance with Note 2.4 to the financial statements.

Investment in Shanghai Onway Environmental Development Co Ltd

The Group has a 51% direct equity interest in Shanghai Onway Environmental Development Co Ltd ("Shanghai Onway") where the remaining 49% is held by another party. Under the joint venture agreement, the board of directors will at all times comprise three representatives from the Group and two representatives from the other joint venture partner. However, the quorum requires at least four members of the board to be present and hence, the Group is unable to form quorum on its own. Management has determined that the Group possesses joint control over the arrangement as decisions about the relevant activities require unanimous consent of representatives appointed by the Group and the venture partner in the management of Shanghai Onway. Accordingly, management has accounted for the Group's investment in Shanghai Onway as joint venture in accordance with Note 2.9 to the financial statements.

3.2 Key sources of estimation uncertainty

The key assumptions concerning the future and other key sources of estimation uncertainty at the end of reporting period, that have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next financial year are discussed below.

(a) Impairment of goodwill

Goodwill acquired in a business combination is allocated, at acquisition to the cash-generating units ("CGUs") that are expected to benefit from that business combination. The carrying amount of goodwill had been allocated to Angwei Environmental Ecological & Engineering (Shanghai) Co., Ltd and its subsidiaries as described in Note 12 to the financial statements.

To determine whether there is an impairment of goodwill at the end of the reporting period, it is necessary to compare the carrying value of goodwill with the recoverable amount from the cash-generating unit to which the goodwill is allocated. The recoverable amount represents the present value of the estimated future cash flows expected to arise from the cash-generating unit. The key assumptions applied in the determination of the value in use including a sensitivity analysis, are disclosed and further explained in Note 12.

3. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING JUDGEMENTS AND ESTIMATES (CONT'D)

3.2 Key sources of estimation uncertainty (cont'd)

(b) Impairment of property, plant and equipment

As disclosed in Note 10 to the financial statements, the recoverable amount of the Group's certain plant and machinery used in steel manufacturing business segment is determined based on fair value less cost of disposal approach, using depreciated replacement cost model. The key assumptions are disclosed in Note 10 to the financial statements.

(c) Impairment of trade receivables

The Group assesses at the end of each reporting period whether there is any objective evidence that a financial asset is impaired. To determine whether there is objective evidence of impairment, the Group considers factors such as the probability of insolvency or significant financial difficulties of the debtor and default or significant delay in payments.

Where there is objective evidence of impairment, the amount and timing of future cash flows are estimated based on historical loss experience for assets with similar credit risk characteristics. The carrying amount of the Group's trade receivables at the end of the reporting period is disclosed in Note 21 to the financial statements. If the present value of estimated future cash flows decrease by 3% from management's estimates, the Group's allowance for doubtful trade receivables will increase by $287,000 (2015: increase by $392,000).

(d) Allowances for inventories

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost and net realisable value. In assessing the allowance for inventories, the Group takes into account the historical obsolescence and slow-moving experiences and future demand of their product. The carrying amount of inventories is disclosed in Note 20 of the financial statements.

Based on management's estimate, inventories are fully provided for obsolescence if there are no sale movements within 4 years. At the end of the reporting period, an allowance for inventory obsolescence of $897,000 (2015: $811,000) has been made. If full allowance is to be made for inventories without sale movement within 3 years, the Group's allowance for inventory obsolescence will increase by $332,000 (2015: $274,000).

(e) Useful lives of property, plant and equipment

The cost of property, plant and equipment is depreciated on a straight-line basis over the assets' useful lives. Management estimates the useful lives of these assets to be within 5 to 44 years. Changes in the expected level of usage and technological developments could impact the economic useful lives and the residual values of these assets, therefore, future depreciation charges could be revised. The carrying amounts of the Company's and Group's property, plant and equipment as at 31 December 2016 were disclosed in Note 10. A 5% difference in the expected useful lives of these assets from management's estimates would result in approximately decrease of $61,000 (2015: $62,000) in the Group's loss after tax.

(a) Entities incorporated in PRC, Singapore and Malaysia

The applicable income tax rate for PRC, Singapore and Malaysia incorporated companies is 25%, 17% and 25% respectively.

(b) Group relief

Under the present income tax legislations in Singapore in respect of group relief claim, tax losses suffered by a Singapore-incorporated subsidiary in the year can be transferred to another Singapore-incorporated company within the same group for offset against the profit of the second company in the same year, subject to the agreement of the tax authorities in Singapore.

In prior year financial year ended 31 December 2015, tax losses suffered by a Singapore incorporated subsidiary which amounted to $816,000 were transferred with consideration to another subsidiary within the Group under the group relief scheme.

(c) Unrecognised tax losses

At the end of the reporting period, the Group has tax losses of approximately $6,467,000 (2015: $4,345,000) that are available for set off against future taxable profits of the Group, for which no deferred tax asset is recognised due to uncertainty of its recoverability. The use of these tax losses is subject to the agreement of the tax authority and compliance with certain provision of the tax legislation. The tax losses have no expiry date.

Notes to the Financial Statements

9. LOSS PER SHARE

Basic loss per share is calculated by dividing loss attributable to owners of the Company by the weighted average number of ordinary shares outstanding during the financial year.

Diluted loss per share is calculated by dividing loss attributable to owners of the Company divided by the weighted average number of ordinary shares outstanding during the financial year plus the weighted average number of ordinary shares that would be issued on the conversion of all the dilutive potential ordinary shares into ordinary shares.

The following table reflect the loss and share data used in the computation of basic and diluted loss per share for the years ended 31 December:

| | Group | |
|---|---------|---------|
| | 2016 | 2015 |
| Loss for the purpose of basic and diluted loss per share ($'000) | (4,568) | (5,756) |
| Number of shares ('000) | | |
| Weighted average number of ordinary shares for basic and diluted loss per share computation | 248,973 | 248,973 |
| Loss per share (cents) | | |
| Basic and diluted loss per share | (1.83) | (2.31) |

All share options granted to employees under the existing employee share option plans have not been included in the calculation of diluted earnings per share because they are anti-dilutive.

Since the end of the financial year, there were no share options being exercised by the eligible employees to acquire the Company's shares.

12. GOODWILL

Goodwill acquired in a business combination is allocated to the CGU that is expected to benefit from that business combination for impairment testing purpose, as follows:

| | Group | |
|---|--------|--------|
| | 2016 | 2015 |
| | $'000 | $'000 |
| AngWei Environmental Ecological & Engineering (Shanghai) Co., Ltd ("AngWei Enviro") and its subsidiaries ⁽¹⁾ | 497 | 497 |

⁽¹⁾ Comprising the wastewater treatment business of its subsidiaries, arising from the service concession rights granted by the PRC government as disclosed in Note 42 to the financial statements.

The recoverable amount of AngWei Enviro Group has been determined based on value in use calculation using cash flow projection from the financial budgets approved by management covering the remaining concession periods of the wastewater treatment plants operated by the CGU, ranging from 24 - 30 years (2015: 25 years). The discount rate applied to these cash flows is 7% (2015: 7%).

Key assumptions used in the value in use calculation

The calculation of value in use is most sensitive to the following assumptions:

Growth rate – The growth rate applied to the revenue for first 5 years is projected at 3% per annum, estimated based on the increase in the wastewater treatment volume and the increase in the wastewater treatment tariff. No growth is projected for the revenue from 6th year until the end of the concession period.

Discount rates – The discount rate calculation is based on the specific circumstances of the CGU and derived from its weighted average cost of capital ("WACC"). The WACC takes into account both debt and equity. The cost of equity is derived from the expected return on investment by the Group's investors. The cost of debt is based on the interest-bearing borrowings the CGU is obliged to service. Segment-specific risk is incorporated by applying individual beta factors. The beta factors are evaluated annually based on publicly available market data.

Budgeted gross margins – Gross margins are based on results achieved in the year preceding the start of the budget period.

Sensitivity to changes in assumptions:

With regards to the assessment of value in use for AngWei Enviro Group, management believes that no reasonably possible changes in any of the above key assumptions would cause the carrying value of the unit to materially exceed its recoverable amount.

39. FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT OBJECTIVES AND POLICIES

The Group and the Company is exposed to financial risks arising from its operations and the use of financial instruments. The key financial risks include credit risk, liquidity risk, foreign currency risk and interest rate risk. The Board of directors reviews and agrees policies and procedures for the management of these risks, which are executed by the Chief Executive Officer and Executive Director. The Audit Committee provides independent oversight to the effectiveness of the risk management process. It is, and has been throughout the current and previous financial year, the Group's policy that no derivatives shall be undertaken except for the use as hedging instruments where appropriate and cost-efficient. The Group and the Company do not apply hedge accounting.

The following sections provide details regarding the Group's and Company's exposure to the above-mentioned financial risks and the objectives, policies and processes for the management of these risks. There have been no changes to the Group's exposure to these financial risks or the manner in which it manages and measures the risks.

(a) Credit risk

Credit risk is the risk of loss that may arise on outstanding financial instruments should a counterparty default on its obligations.

The Group's credit risk is primarily attributable to its trade and other receivables. Before accepting any new customer, credit evaluation is performed by the Company's credit review committee on a regular basis and generally do not require any collateral. The credit limit and credit amount granted to customers are reviewed once a year based on current creditworthiness and the past collection history of each customer. Where appropriate, the Group enters into a credit protection scheme with a financial institution.

For other financial assets (including cash and bank balances), the Group minimises credit risk by dealing exclusively with high credit rating counterparties.

39. FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT OBJECTIVES AND POLICIES (CONT'D)

(a) Credit risk (cont'd)

Concentration risk

The Group does not have any significant credit risk exposure to any single counterparty or any group of counterparties having similar characteristics. The Group defines counterparties as having similar characteristics if they are related entities. Concentration of credit risk is limited due to the customer base being large and unrelated. The credit risk on liquid funds is limited because the Group places its cash with reputable financial institutions.

Exposure to credit risk

The extent of the Group's credit exposure is represented by the aggregate carrying amount of cash and bank balances, trade and other receivables and amounts due from an associate and a joint venture and amount due from related parties.

The maximum amount that the Company could be forced to settle under corporate guarantee contracts to the banks in respect of facilities extended to its subsidiaries is $30,126,000 (2015: $32,111,000).

Information regarding credit enhancements for trade and other receivables is disclosed in Note 21.

Credit risk concentration profile

The Group determines concentrations of credit risk by monitoring the country profile of its trade receivables on an on-going basis. The credit risk concentration profile of the Group's trade receivables (net) at the balance sheet date is as follows:

| | 2016 | | 2015 | |
|--------------------|--------------|-------------|---------------|-------------|
| | $'000 | % of total | $'000 | % of total |
| By country: | | | | |
| Singapore | 3,916 | 41% | 7,853 | 60% |
| Malaysia | 1,171 | 12% | 1,333 | 10% |
| PRC | 1,498 | 16% | 1,417 | 11% |
| Others | 2,991 | 31% | 2,448 | 19% |
| | 9,576 | 100% | 13,051 | 100% |

At the balance sheet date, approximately 0.57% (2015: 0.36%) of the Group's trade receivables were due from related parties. There were no customers who represented more than 5% of the total balance of trade receivables.

Financial assets that are neither past due nor impaired

Trade and other receivables that are neither past due nor impaired are creditworthy debtors with good payment record with the Group. Cash and bank balances that are neither past due nor impaired are placed with or entered into with reputable financial institutions or companies with high credit ratings and no history of default.

Financial assets that are either past due or impaired

Information regarding financial assets that are either past due or impaired is disclosed in Note 21.

39. FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT OBJECTIVES AND POLICIES (CONT'D)

(b) Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Group will encounter difficulty in meeting financial obligations due to shortage of funds. The Group's exposure to liquidity risk arises primarily from mismatches of the maturities of financial assets and liabilities. The Group aims to maintain committed bank facilities prudently in excess of its estimated gross borrowing requirements.

Analysis of financial instruments by remaining contractual maturities

The table below summarises the maturity profile of the Group's and the Company's financial assets and liabilities at the balance sheet date based on contractual undiscounted repayment obligations.

39. FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT OBJECTIVES AND POLICIES (CONT'D)

(c) Foreign currency risk

The Group transacts business in various foreign currencies and therefore is exposed to foreign exchange risk. The Group's foreign currency exposures arise mainly from the exchange rate movements of the United States dollar against the Singapore dollar. To the extent possible, sales and purchases which are denominated in United States dollar provide natural hedges. The remaining foreign currency exposure is considered limited.

It is the Group's policy not to enter into forward contracts until a firm commitment is in place. It is the Group's policy to negotiate the terms of the hedge derivatives to match the terms of the hedged item to maximise the economic hedge.

Sensitivity analysis for foreign currency risk

The following table demonstrates the sensitivity to a reasonably possible change in the USD (against SGD), with all other variables held constant, of the Group's profit net of tax.

| | 2016 Profit net of tax $'000 | 2015 Profit net of tax $'000 |
|---------------------------------------|--|--|
| Group | | |
| USD/SGD - strengthened 10% (2015:10%) | 60 | 135 |
| - weakened 10% (2015:10%) | (60) | (135) |

(d) Interest rate risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of the Group's and the Company's financial instruments will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates. The Group's exposure to interest rate risk arises primarily from their loans and borrowings. All of the Group's financial liabilities at floating rates are contractually re-priced at intervals of less than 6 months (2015: less than 6 months) from the end of the reporting period. The Group's policy is to manage interest cost using a mix of fixed and floating rate debts. The Group's policy is to keep 40% to 70% (2015: 40% to 70%) of its loans and borrowings at fixed rates of interest.

Sensitivity analysis for interest rate risk

At the end of the reporting period, if SGD interest rates had been 20 (2015: 20) basis points higher/lower with all other variables held constant, the Group's loss before tax would have been $45,000 (2015: $55,000) higher/lower, arising mainly as a result of higher/lower interest expense on floating rate loans and borrowings. The assumed movement in basis points for interest rate sensitivity analysis is based on the currently observable market environment, showing a significantly higher volatility as in prior years.

Notes to the Financial Statements

For the financial year ended 31 December 2016

40. FAIR VALUES OF ASSETS AND LIABILITIES

(a) Fair value hierarchy

The Group categories fair value measurements using a fair value hierarchy that is dependent on the valuation input used as follows:

- Level 1 – Quoted prices (unadjusted) in active market for identical assets or liabilities that the Group can access at the measurement date;
- Level 2 – Inputs other than quoted prices included within Level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly; and
- Level 3 – Unobservable inputs for the asset or liability.

Fair value measurements that use inputs of different hierarchy levels are categorised in its entirety in the same level of the fair value hierarchy as the lowest level input that is significant to the entire measurement.

There have been no transfers of items amongst the level during the financial year ended 31 December 2016 and 2015.

(b) Assets and liabilities measured at fair value

The following tables show an analysis of each class of assets and liabilities measured at fair value at the end of the reporting period:

| | Fair value measurements at the end of the reporting period using | | | Total |

40. FAIR VALUES OF ASSETS AND LIABILITIES (CONT'D)

(c) Level 2 fair value measurements

The following is a description of the valuation techniques and inputs used in the fair value measurement for assets and liabilities that are categorised within Level 2 of the fair value hierarchy:

Finance derivative (liabilities)/assets

Forward currently contracts and interest rate swaps are valued using a valuation technique with market observable inputs. The most frequently applied valuation techniques include forward pricing and swap models, using present value calculations. The models incorporate various inputs including the credit quality of counterparties, foreign exchange spot and forward rates, interest rate curves and forward rate curve.

(d) Assets and liabilities not carried at fair value but for which fair value is disclosed

The following table shows an analysis of the Group's assets and liabilities not measured at fair value but for which fair value is disclosed:

| | Group | | | | Company | | | |

| Government loans (Note 27) | 1,456 | 1,317 ^{##} | 763 | 714 ^{##} | – | – | – | – |

* Unquoted equity, at cost

Fair value information has not been disclosed for the Group's investments in unquoted equity security carried at cost because fair value cannot be measured reliably, the investment is not quoted in any market and do not have any comparable industry peers that are listed.

Amounts due from subsidiaries (non-current)

It is not practical to estimate the fair value of the non-current amounts due from subsidiaries as the amounts are not repayable within a year and have no fixed repayment terms. Hence, the timing of future cash flows cannot be estimated reliably.

For the financial year ended 31 December 2016

40. FAIR VALUES OF ASSETS AND LIABILITIES (CONT'D)

(d) Assets and liabilities not carried at fair value but for which fair value is disclosed (cont'd)

 Deferred consideration payable

The fair value, determined using significant unobservable inputs (level 3), is estimated by discounting expected future cash flows at market incremental lending rate for similar types of lending, borrowing or leasing arrangements at the end of the reporting period. The fair value is similar to the carrying amount as the current market rate does not differ significantly from the intrinsic rate of the deferred consideration payable.

Other receivables (non-current) and government loans

The fair value, determined using significant unobservable inputs (level 3), is estimated by discounting expected future cash flows at market incremental lending rate for similar types of lending, borrowing or leasing arrangements at the end of the reporting period.

41. FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS BY CATEGORY

42. SERVICE CONCESSION ARRANGEMENTS (CONT'D)

The subsidiaries are required to hand back these respective plants and other related facilities under the BOT arrangements to the respective local municipal government body/agency at the end of the respective concession periods without any consideration.

Subject to the approval of the local municipal government, the various concession arrangements allow for tariff adjustment based on the increases in key operating costs, overall adjustment of water tariff rates in the region where the plants operate, and the government policies regarding the management of water resources.

43. CAPITAL MANAGEMENT

The Group manages its capital to ensure that entities in the Group will be able to continue as a going concern, while maximising the return to stockholders through the optimisation of the debt and equity balance.

The capital structure of the Group consists of debt which includes borrowings as disclosed in Notes 27 and equity attributable to equity holders of the Company, comprising issued capital and reserves as disclosed in Notes 30 to 33.

Management reviews the capital structure of the Company on a yearly basis. As part of this review, management considers the cost of capital and the risks associated with each class of capital. The management also ensures that the Group maintains the capital requirements and complies with the financial covenants within the range imposed by various banks for the borrowings extended to the Group.

The Group's overall strategy for 2016 has remained unchanged from 2015.

The Group monitors capital based on gearing ratio which is total liabilities divided by total equity. At 31 December 2016, total liabilities and total equity are $44,286,000 (2015: $50,967,000) and $59,657,000 (2015: $64,556,000) respectively. The Group seeks to maintain a balance between higher returns that might be possible with higher levels of borrowings and the advantages and security afforded by a sound capital position. At 31 December 2016, the Group's gearing ratio was 0.74 (2015: 0.79).

44. AUTHORISATION OF FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
